THIRD DIET.

St. Gabriel St. Church, Montreal, P. Q., 12th June, 1875.

Which time and place the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, in connection of the Church of Scotland, met pursuant to adjournment, and after devotional exercises, conducted by Rev. J. M. Sutherland, was constituted with prayer by the Moderator.

The Roll having been called, the minutes of yesterday's sederunt were read and sustained as correct.

Consideration of the Report on Foreign Mission was resumed, and after due deliberation, it was moved by Rev. John McMillan, seconded by Dr. Waddell, and Resolved, "That this Synod cordially adopt the Report of the Foreign Mission Committee, thank the Committee, and very specially the Convener, for the zeal and ability with which they have discharged the important duties entrusted to them, and re-appoint them to continue the good work in the Foreign field."

"The Synod learns with deep regret that the Rev. John Goodwill has been compelled, on account of the declining health of himself and his amiable wife, to retire from the field, sympathizes with him in his affliction, and prays God that his health may be so far restored as to enable him to resume the work of the ministry in his native land."

"The Synod rejoices that the Rev. H. A. Robertson has, by the blessing of God, been enabled to send such a gratifying Report of his work on Erromanga. Cordially approves of his efforts to station agents throughout the whole island, and earnestly commend himself and his family to our Heavenly Father's care."

"The Synod rejoices to learn that Miss Johns, who appeared before it last year in Halifax, and who so nobly gave herself up to the work of the Lord in heathen lands, has arrived safely at Madras, and entered upon the work, and confidently hopes and prays that she may be enabled by the Spirit of God to lead her sisters in India to the foot of the cross of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Synod further rejoices with the Committee, that one congregation has assumed the responsibility of Miss Johns' support, and heartily commend this congregation's example to the attention and imitation of the whole Church."

"The Synod regrets that the collections in aid of this great work have fallen off considerably, urgently request all congregations to come up to the help of the Lord against the mighty—by their money contributions, sympathies and prayers."

"The Synod authorizes the Treasurer to pay Mr. Goodwill's salary up to 1st July, 1875, and also passage money."

"Finally, the Synod gratefully acknowledges the marks of interest displayed in this Scheme by congregations beyond the bounds, and the contributions sent during several successive years by the congregation at Dundee; and repeats the
