The legal standing of the exemption of Canadian Pacific Railway land from taxation will be decided by the courts in an action promoted by the Dominion Interior department. The company claims that the exemption is twenty years from the patenting of the land, and does not patent till sold, when it becomes subject to taxation. The municipalities claim that the exemption runs twenty years from the selection of the land. The municipalities of North Cyprus, at the instance of the Interior department, assessed certain land which had been selected by the company more than twenty years ago. The taxes demanded will be due in November, and if unpaid, suit will be entered by the Dominion government in the name of the municipality of North Cyprus.
