FEBRUARY 1826.

No. IV.

1. AN ACT to provide for the extinction of Feudal and Seigniorial Rights and Burthens on Lands held à titre de Fief, and à titre de Cens, in the Province of Lower Canada; and for the gradual conversion of those tenures into the tenures of Free and Common Soccage; and for purposes relating to the said Province. 22d June, 1825.
2. AN ACT to alter for one year, and until the end of the then next Session of Parliament, the duty on Wheat the produce of the British possessions in North America. 22d June, 1825.
3. AN ACT for further regulating the trade of his Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and for the warehousing of goods therein. 27th June, 1825.
4. AN ACT to enable his Majesty to grant to a Company, to be incorporated by charter, to be called "The CANADA Company," certain lands in the province of UPPER CANADA, and to invest the said Company with certain powers and privileges, and for other purposes relating thereto. 27th June, 1825.
5. AN ACT to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad. 5th July, 1825.

This is a catalogue of legislative proceedings and enactments which we believe has no precedent in colonial administration either ancient or modern. It forms indeed a new, and we hope an auspicious era in our colonial affairs; and while it lays the foundation of a better order of things, it will in the mean time secure to us privileges and blessings which we have long desired in vain. It is besides a remarkable instance at once of the wisdom and liberality of ministry, and of the general opinion of men with regard to subjects of trade and commerce. It is
