

The earth is full of the goodness of the Lord.

Psalm xxxiii. 5.

We place the whole matter in His hands determined by His grace never to use the pages of THE BULLETIN as a medium for glorifying other than God himself. THE PICTURE text on our front page expresses our experience in the past, and our confidence for the future.

SPECIAL SERVICES.

WE purpose (D.V.) holding a couple of weeks special services for young men only, commencing on Monday, 14th January. Will our christian friends make these meetings a subject of prayer.

OUR NEW HEADING.

For the neat and well executed Heading which for the first time graces our Bulletin, we are indebted to Mr. Chas. A. Sandham, of Toronto.

Look not at the quantity, but at the quality of your service, whatsoever that service may be. If it be preaching, preaching is not the first thing: the heart must first be kept, then two or three words spoken in the power of the Spirit may avail more than all the sermons we may preach.—Selected.

CHRISTMAS.

ON Christmas morning at 9 o'clock. a thanksgiving service, for young men, was held in our rooms. There was a very good attendance, and the hour was one of much profit. Among those present were several who during the past year have been led to the Lord, in connection with our services. We only wish our space would admit of the testimonies given, as we feel assured they would prove helpful to other young men. Take one or two for example:

"Last Christmas morning I scarce'ly had a coat for my back. My wife was heart-broken; my children were sad. I was miserable. To-day, thank God, I have a good suit to wear. My wife is cheerful, my children are enjoying their presents, and I am happy—so happy. I have been ten months serving the Lord, and they have been the happiest ten months I ever spent."

Another: "I thank God for what He has done for me. Last Sunday (a very stormy cold day), as I was on my boarding-house visitation, I handed a man a Bulletin. He said "Young man, you are earning Heaven sure, to come out such a day as this." I answered, "No, I get that for nothing, and now I feel so grateful, that I want to work to lead others to accept the same gift."

Still another:—"I have only been a christian for three weeks, but the Lord has done a great deal for me in that short time."

When the hour of dismissal had come we would fain have lingered a little longer. May the Lord grant us still greater blessings during the coming year.

He will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry.

Isa. xxx. 19.
