NEW LIGHTS, or LIFE IN GALWAY. A TALE OF THE NEW REFORMATION. By Mrs. J. SADIÉRIE. 18mo., 443 pages, muslin, 2s 6d.

EXTRACTS FROM NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"New Lights, or Life in Galway, is an original tale by Mrs. Sadlier, and upon the whole the best and most finished of her powerful and most interesting tales in illustration of Irish history and Irish character. The New Lights are the converts to Protestantism obtained by soup and stir-about, and the story is intended to illustrate what is called the New Reformation in the West of Ireland. The characters are well drawn and clearly marked, and never, save in her rich and varied, and wholly unpretending conversation, have we ever seen Mrs. Sadlier to so great advantage as in the whole plan and conduct of this story. The work is marked by genuine Irish simplicity and archness, love of fun and touching pathos, violent passion and melting tenderness of heart, sweetness of temper, supernatural patience and resignation, strong faith and ardent piety. Mrs. Sadlier is a true Irishwoman, and has a most wonderful faculty of compelling us, even in spite of ourselves, to love and honor her countrymen and countrywomen. We recommend her book most warmly to all classes of readers, but especially to those who are pretending that Ireland is about to apostatize from the faith. An Irishman is no Irishman when not a Catholic."—Brownson's Review.

"Mrs. Sadlier is much admired as a writer of tales, and this new production of her gifted pen will be sought for with avidity. One of its aims is to expose the proselytizing efforts made in Ireland during the late famine."—Catholic Herald.

"Mrs. Sadlier has contributed many interesting volumes, original or translated, to the growing Catholic Library of America; but the last is the best of all. We cordially recommend the work to all our readers."—American Cdt.

"We have read this work with great satisfaction, and regard it as one of Mrs. Sadlier's best efforts. The picture of Irish sufferings and Irish firmness is true to life. It is a clear and true expose of the proselytizing system recently pursued in Ireland, by the establishment of Soup Houses and other tricks, to bribe the famishing poor from their ancient faith. The Irishness are correct, and display in the writer an intimacy with Irish character, which is rarely met with in books on Ireland. The work can be read with interest, profit and pleasure."—Baltimore Catholic Mirror.

"This is a new work from the pen of a lady already well and most favorably known to the Catholic public throughout the world speaking the English language, and whose contributions to Catholic literature we always welcome with delight."—St. Louis Shepherd of the Valley.

"We welcome the work before us as one which paints with artistic truth and reflects faithfully the innermost feelings of our people in joy or in sorrow."—New York Truth Teller.

"We are sorry we are unavoidably precluded from giving extracts from this exciting work, which we hope to do on a future occasion. In the meantime we earnestly recommend such of our readers who wish to enjoy a real literary luxury for half a dollar, to apply at once to Mr. Doyle or Mr. Donnelly, in the Arcade, where the volume is for sale."—Toronto Mirror.

"The question need not now be demanded, 'Have we an authoress amongst us?' for in truth, we have; and one whose reputation occupies a more elevated position than the flood of trashy writers whose work now inundate our literature, and are landed far beyond their merits by those who should know better. Mrs. Sadlier has written several well told tales; but we consider the present work the best she has produced."—Montreal Transcript.

"As a description of Irish character and manners, most graphic and true to nature, we cannot but speak in very high terms of 'New Lights.' We doubt not that this work will have an extensive sale."—Montreal Pilot.

"This tale is dedicated to the People of Ireland, and is written in a spirit of deep sympathy for their unfortunate condition. With regard to its peculiar religious tendencies, we have no opinion to express. As a merely literary production, it will add new lustre to the already high reputation of the gifted authoress. Some of the delineations are graphic in the extreme, and the dialogue throughout is truthful and dramatic."—Montreal Star.

"New Lights" is in every chapter elegant and readable, and in several places reminds us of Professor Wilson's "Lights and Shadows of Scotch Life," than which we could pay neither author nor authoress a higher compliment."—Montreal Commercial Advertiser.

"This new work from the pen of Mrs. Sadlier, will we doubt not add to the already well earned reputation that the lady enjoys, as the authoress of several charming Irish tales, in which the manners and national characteristics of her countrymen are delineated with great power, and admirable fidelity."—Montreal True Witness.

"This, the best production of Mrs. Sadlier's clever pen is most appropriately dedicated to the people of Ireland. It is without exception or question, the most felicitous picture of the state of Ireland that has been drawn by any artist of the present day. We know of no writer of Irish romance except poor Bannin, who has so thoroughly comprehended, or honestly exposed the real causes of Irish discontent, wretchedness, and insubordination. If the scene were laid in Carolina, instead of Conemara,—if the victims were negroes and not of European complexion—Savages and not civilized beings—Pagans instead of Papists—then indeed might Mrs. Sadlier hope to eclipse Mrs. Stowe in English popularity, and have her apotheosis proclaimed at St. Paul's House, as it is the press of this country will fittingly the 'cold shade of silence' over her admirable tale."—London Catholic Standard.

DOCTRINAL AND SCRIPTURAL CATECHISM. By the Rev. Pere Collot, Doctor of the Sorbonne. Translated from the French, by Mrs. J. Sadlier. For the use of the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

This is considered by competent judges as the most complete, and at the same time, the most concise Catechism of the Christian Religion and of Scripture History that has yet been offered to the public. It is admirably adapted for adults requiring instruction as well as for children. The answers are all so condensed that they are easily committed to memory; and there is not a single point connected with religion, either of doctrine, discipline, or ceremonial, that is not fully explained.

We know that this work requires only to be known to secure for it a very wide circulation. In order to place the work within the reach of every person, we have determined to put it at the following prices: 12mo. 440 pages, half bound, 1s 10d; muslin, 2s 6d; to schools and colleges we will put them at $25 per 100.

The CATHOLIC CHRISTIAN INSTRUCTED in the Sacraments, Sacrifice, Ceremonies, and Observances of the Church. By Way of Questions and Answers. By the Most Rev. Dr. Challoner. 18mo. flexible muslin, 1s 3d; muslin, or sheep binding, 1s 10d.

THINK WELL ON'T; or, Reflections on the Great Truths of the Christian Religion, for every day in the month. By the Most Rev. Dr. Challoner; 32mo. muslin, 1s.

NEWMAN'S SERMONS to Mixed Congregations, 3s 9d. Do. LECTURES on Anglicanism, . . . 3s 9d. WISEMAN'S SERMONS on DEVOTION to the HOLY EUCHARIST, to which is added his Lecture delivered at Leeds, . . . 1s 0d.

A Book which should be adopted in every Catholic School: CATECHISM of GEOGRAPHY. For the use of the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

This will supply a want long felt by Catholics, as their children were obliged to study geography, if at all, from books which represented the people of every Catholic country as ignorant, superstitious, and revengeful. 12mo. of 140 pages, price only 1s; or, 7s 6d per dozen.

NEW LIGHTS; or, LIFE IN GALWAY:

A Tale of the New Reformation, by Mrs. J. Sadlier, 18mo. of 450 pages, printed on fine paper, and illustrated with two original designs, price in muslin only 2s. 6d.

The main object of this story is to bring under the notice of Catholics in America, and of Irish Catholics in particular, the nefarious system of proselytism going on from day to day and from year to year in the remote and famine stricken districts of Ireland; the fearful persecutions and temptations by which the starving poor are incessantly assailed, and their steadfast adherence (with comparatively few exceptions) to the ancient faith of their fathers.
