His Outspoken Opinion. The very marked testimonials from College Professors, respectable Physicians, and other gentlemen of intelligence and tharacter to the value of Warner's SAFE Cure published in the editorial columns of our bost vewspa-pers, have greatly surprised me. Many of these gentlemen I know, and reading their testimony I was impelled to purchase some hottles of Warner's SAFE Cure and mairze the medicine is not injurious and will trankly add that if I and myself the visitim of - serious kidney trouble I should use this presence of more than one kidney maiad, while the testimony of hundreds of intelli-gent and very reputable gentlement in addi-gent and very reputable gentlement in the presence of more than one kidney maiad, while the testimony of hundreds of intelli-gent and very reputable gentlement in ardig-leaves room to doubt that for H, H. The grand steeplechase over the Mountain HEADACHE, TOOTHACHE, took place Thursday alternoon, and some of the best snowshoe racers in the country took part in them, including J. G. Bone, of the Montreal Olub, who, last year, re-duced the record to 18 minutes 19 seconds. Then there were pitted sgainst him Larkin, of the Emeralds, who recently has come to the front as a most promising runner; Mo nd all other bodily sches and pains. Sharply at four o'clock the members of the Carnival Snowshoe Commit tee, under whose direction the race was held were upon the ground, but it was some time before the snowshoers could be got into position. Finally, everything was arranged, and the competitors faced the line in readiness for the start. There were some ten entries for the race, namely :- J G Ross, Montreal S S Club; Larkin, Emerald S S Club; D D McTaggart, M S S Club; J Baird, Montreal S S Olub ; McCaw, Montreal S 8 Olub; A W Ross, St George's S 5 Olub; E Desroches, H Tessier, E Valliere, S B Valliere. Mr O D Monk gave the word, and a good start was obtained. The competitors being off, the members of the committee, smong whom were Messrs. Monk, Becket, Matthews, J. McKenns, and others, at once took the sleighs in waiting and pro-ceeded as quickly as possible, via Guy street to Lumkin's, to witness the finish of the race. Lumkin's was reached just as the snowshoers were coming out over the track leading across the Catholic cemetery, and a good eight of the finish was ob-tainable. Dashing over the track the competitors could be seen, Larkin of the Emealds leading, followed by Boss and McTaggart. The finish was an exciting one. Larkin, who had taken the lead from the start on MoTavish street, was by this time well ahead and crossed the finishing line considerably in advance amid the wildest cheers from a large number of the Emerald boys who were in waiting, and which were heartily joined in by the members of the other clubs. The winner war closely followed by J. G. Ross, D. D. McTaggart, W. McCaw, and J. Baird, the time of the compatitors being as follows :---Time.

THE INDIAN CONCEBT.

The concert of the Caughnawaga Glee Olut, at Nordhelmer's Hall, Thursday evening, was largely attended. Among the audience were a large number of strangers to the city, who seemed greatly pleased with the novelty of the entertainment. Mr. MoLea Walbank presided and made a most iceiing and appropriate address. With regard to the Indians who took part in the programme, we refrain from mentioning their names for the simple reason that they are "too much" and unintelligible to the m jority of our readers. The programme was followed out faithfully in every detail, the strange choruses and tableau English language, means "God Save the

The ball at the Windsor Friday night was a brilliant success, and recalled memories of tistic display of the culinary art. After previous similar gatherings at which royalty supper their Excellencies retired to the previous similar gatherings at which royalty or vicerovalty were present. The presence of many of our American cousins added to the special features of the scene. The floral decorstions were of a superior description, and surpassed anything of the kind ever seen in the city, and the designer, Mr. W. B. Davidson, of Phillips Square, deserves praise for his magnificent display of flowers and plants. The guests, on entering by the grand staircase leading from the rotunda to the corridor, tound themselves entering a bower, as the balustrades of the staircase were | half past two, when the Carnival ball of 1884 all festconed with laurel, from which at intervals were suspended balls of flowers, while groups of tropical greenhouse plants living deserve all praise for the manner in which the sides, or nestling in odd corners, while laurel was entwined around the baunisters in graceful jantastic designs. The corridor was festooned with laurel and over each door were suspended balls and bells of flowers, while ing the Pines Ross broke his shoe, but he the gassliers and plotures were wreathed with airy, graceful smilax. The wails were covered with graceful wreaths of smilax, suspending globes of flowers composed of the choicest roses and orchids, while above the windows ran decorations of laurel in endless variety of designs. In the four corners were bowers of plants artistically and tasteinly arranged, affording a pleasant retreat after the dance. Following the curvatures of the gariands were draperies of scarlet and white, and on the walls and every av ilable space flaunted the banners of all nations, lending additional brilliancy to the attractive and entrancing scene. The dais in the centre of the room, beside the wall to the right on entering, was the samo as used at the Garrison and Sunt Olub balls, being surmounted by the royal cost of arms and draped in scarlet and gold, with lace surtains falling from the sides.
