Lady Mildred Jessup, the youngest daughter of Lord Strathmore, has written the music of an opera, of which her husband wrote the libretto. The opera is called "Ethelinda," and has been produced in Florence, Italy, with great success.
" A little farm well tilled,
A little cellar well filled,
A little wife well willed.',
What could you wish a man better than that? The last is not the least by any means, but how can a wife be well willed if she be the victim of those distressing maladies that make her life a burden? Let her take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and cure all painful irregularities, uterine disordere, inflammation and ulceration, prolapsus and kindred weaknesses. It is a boon and a blessing to women. Thousands are in the bloom of health through using it, when otherwise they would be under the sod. Are you a sufferer? Use it, or some day we may read-

A typical Southern African household described by Oliver Schreiner had an English father, a half Dutch mother with a French name, a Scotch governess, a Zulu cook, a Hottentot housemaid and a Kaffir stable boy, while the little girl who waited on the table was a Basuto.

Thomas Nast, whose great success as a caricaturist has not killed his original desire to become an historical painter, spent last winter in the work of his heart, and produced two pictures on events of the War of the Rebellion. Bat, all the same, he is still likely to win more fame in black and white than in oils, says the Hartford Courant.
