ARTICLE 6.

The High Contracting Parties express their general acceptance of the principles underlying Annex V, which is attached as a model scheme of census of industrial production, and agree to consider the question of giving effect to such of them as may be applicable when it becomes possible to contemplate complete or partial census of the type indicated in that Annex.

ARTICLE 7.

The High Contracting Parties express their general acceptance of the principles underlying Annex V, which is attached as an illustration of a scheme for the compilation of individual scheme. for the compilation of indices of industrial activity, and agree to consider the question of giving effect to such of them as may be applicable when it becomes possible to contemplate the preparation of indices of industrial activity on comprehensive scale.

ARTICLE 8.

- 1. A Committee of Technical Experts shall be appointed at a meeting of the League of National States the Council of the League of Nations, and one delegate from each State, not Member of the League of Nations, represented at the Conference of Geneval on behalf of which ratifications or accessions have been deposited.
- 2. In addition to the particular functions which are entrusted to it under the provisions of the present Convention and the instruments annexed thereto, the Committee of Experts referred to in the preceding paragraph of this article may make any suggestions which appear to it useful, for the purpose of improving or amplifying the principles and or amplifying the principles and arrangements laid down in the Convention concerning the classes of statistics dealt with therein. It may also make suggestions in regard to other classes of statistics dealt with therein. tions in regard to other classes of statistics of a similar character in respect, which it appears desirable and practically appears desirable and appears d which it appears desirable and practicable to secure international uniformity. It shall examine all suggestions to the same end which may be submitted to just the Governments of any of the Trial Control of the same and which may be submitted to just the control of the same and which may be submitted to just the same and by the Governments of any of the High Contracting Parties.

The Committee shall not make any suggestions in respect of statistics relating to public or private finance (public debt, revenue and expenditure, banking, the money market, stock explanations. banking, the money market, stock exchange, &c.), or without the previous agreement of the appropriate intervals. agreement of the appropriate international institutions or organisations respect of statistics relating to agriculturally respect of statistics relating to agriculture, labour or transport.

3. The Council of the League of Nations is requested, if at any time a desire to that effect is expressed by not less than half of those Members of the League and non-member States on whose held is and non-member States on whose behalf instruments of ratification or accession have been deposited, to convolve a second have been deposited, to convoke a conference for the revision and, if it seems desirable, the amplification of the desirable, the amplification of the present Convention.

ARTICLE 9.

The High Contracting Parties undertake that their respective statistical ces shall exchange with each other the services shall exchange with each other the statistical returns compiled and published by them in accordance with the published by them in accordance with the provisions of the present Convention

ARTICLE 10.

Should a dispute arise between two or more High Contracting Parties are interpretation or application of the contracting Parties as to the interpretation or application of the provisions of the present Convention and should such dispute not be settled either the convention of the present Convention. and should such dispute not be settled either directly between the parties or