

This preliminary study of importers of business machines in the United States consisted of 51 companies surveyed by Peat Marwick. It should be noted that several foreign-owned U.S. firms were interviewed for their comments.