

- (c) The rate of the maintenance allowance and clothing allowance mentioned above will be determined in consultation with the Sudan authorities. Allowances issued by Canada shall be exempt from Sudan taxation.

ARTICLE V

Military Jurisdiction

Trainees shall not, during the period of their training in Canada, be subject to the Code of Service Discipline of the Canadian Forces. The authorities of Sudan will, however, issue in advance to trainees appropriate written orders, a copy of which will be conveyed to the authorities of Canada, to ensure compliance by the trainees with orders and instructions issued to them by the authorities of the Canadian Forces during the period of their training in Canada. If, in the opinion of the authorities of the Canadian Forces, a trainee fails to comply with said orders and instructions, his training may be terminated.

ARTICLE VI

Prohibited Activities

A trainee shall not during the period of training in Canada:

- (a) be required to participate in any form of combat operations either in or out of Canada or in aid of civil power; or
- (b) be required to perform any functions, duty or act that is inconsistent with the purpose of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII

Canadian Law

Trainees will be amenable to the civil and criminal laws in force in Canada and to the jurisdiction of civil and criminal courts in Canada.

ARTICLE VIII

Security

Canada shall take measures to ensure the security and protection within Canada of the person and property of trainees, to the extent that it does for members of the Canadian Forces.

ARTICLE IX

Security

The Sudan shall take security measures to prevent the disclosure by a trainee, after the cessation of his training, to any other government or to any unauthorized person of classified Canadian information of which he may become cognizant in his capacity as a trainee.
