

- (b) that the commanding officer will report to a single authority in the Office of the Election Commissioner and that the same authority will be responsible for the tasking of the Unit;
- (c) that a liaison relationship between the commanding officer and the senior Canadian election observer will be established.

6. Costs

It is understood that:

- (a) Canada has agreed to absorb the costs incurred in the deployment of the Unit to Rhodesia and its repatriation to Canada;
- (b) the United Kingdom is to provide, maintain and meet all in-country operational costs associated with the provision of the Canadian air transport services;
- (c) the United Kingdom will provide all normal supply, administrative and communications services without charge;
- (d) the United Kingdom is to meet all in-country direct costs incurred and paid by Canada including the cost of accommodation, rations and daily subsistence allowances for all personnel at the approved Canadian rates.

7. Miscellaneous

It is understood:

- (a) that Canadian aircrew will carry sidearms during flying operations while in the theatre for use in self-defence;
- (b) that secure accommodation for aircraft and maintenance will be provided and that Unit members will live in commercial accommodation;
- (c) that Royal Rhodesian Air Force medical/dental facilities will be available as required by members of the air unit.