

No legal proceeding shall be conducted in a way that might infringe the inviolability of such a person or of the residence of the household.

Persons who are authorized to obtain gainful employment shall also cease to benefit from the customs privileges allowed under Articles 36 and 37 of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations of April 18, 1961 and under Article 50 of the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations of April 24, 1963.

As regards income derived from gainful employment in the receiving State, such persons shall be subject to the provisions of the Convention of May 2, 1975 between Canada and France for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and the Prevention of Fiscal Evasion with respect to Taxes on Income and Capital and to any other agreement that might take its place.

Such persons shall not benefit from the exemption from social security provisions enjoyed by family members under Articles 33 and 37 of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations and Article 48 of the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations. Such persons shall be subject to the provisions of the Social Security Agreement of February 9, 1979 between Canada and France.

Persons authorized to obtain gainful employment under this Agreement shall be allowed to transfer their wages and related allowances under the conditions provided for foreign workers by the exchange regulations of the receiving State.

If the foregoing is acceptable to the Government of the French Republic, this letter, which is authentic in English and French, and your reply to that effect on behalf of the Government of the French Republic shall constitute an Agreement between our two Governments. Each party shall notify the other of the completion of the procedures required to bring this exchange of letters into force. The Agreement shall enter into force on the first day of the second month following the date of receipt of the last of these notifications. It shall remain in force until the expiration of a period of ninety days from the date of written notification by either Government of its intention to terminate the Agreement.

I should be grateful if you would inform me whether the foregoing provisions meet with the approval of your Government".
