

Czechoslovakia also disputes the right of the representatives of South Korea and Bao-Dai Viet-Nam to sign the present International Telecommunication Convention on behalf of the countries of Korea and Viet-Nam respectively since they do not actually represent these countries.

Czechoslovakia does not accept the signing of the International Telecommunication Convention by the representatives of the Bonn authorities on behalf of the whole of Germany and states that the German Democratic Republic which duly acceded to the International Telecommunication Convention, Atlantic City, 1947, must be regarded as a Member of the International Telecommunication Union as of right.

2. Czechoslovakia does not accept the decisions of the Plenipotentiary Conference of the International Telecommunication Union, Buenos Aires, relative to the Agreement of the Extraordinary Administrative Radio Conference, Geneva, 1951, since these decisions are aimed at legalizing the said Agreement which is in contradiction with Article 47 of the Atlantic City Radio Regulations, 1947, and reserves the right to adhere strictly to Article 47 of those Regulations.

3. Czechoslovakia is not in agreement with the decisions of the Plenipotentiary Conference of the International Telecommunication Union, Buenos Aires, relative to the International Frequency Registration Board and reserves the right to accept or not to accept Article 6 of the International Telecommunication Convention in whole or in part.

XXVIII

For Turkey:

1. In view of the provisions of Article 12 of the new Buenos Aires Convention, I formally declare in the name of my Delegation that the reservations made previously in the name of the Turkish Government with reference to the regulations mentioned in that Article continue to be valid.

2. Upon signing the Final Acts of the Buenos Aires Convention, I formally declare in the name of the Government of the Republic of Turkey, that my Government cannot accept any
