

If students have made arrangements with an organization in Canada to meet them on arrival, they should inform that organization if any changes have to be made in their travel plans. During August and September, the Canadian Bureau for International Education operates an "Overseas Students Reception Desk" at the Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver airports. Its representatives on duty until midnight every day including Sunday, wear armbands with the words "Reception Service—Service d'Accueil". They will welcome students arriving on international flights and help them with their onward travel plans.

If you arrive at an airport and find no one there to meet you, take the airport bus or limousine, or, if these are not available, a taxi into the city. Ask which form of transportation is least expensive depending on your final destination in the city. It is recommended that students traveling by sea who wish to be met write to the Canadian Bureau for International Education, Suite 809, 141 Laurier Avenue West, Ottawa K1P 5J3, Canada, at least one month before arrival, giving the name of the ship, class of passage, port and date of arrival in Canada.

Temporary accommodation: Single men and women can usually find temporary accommodation at a YMCA or YWCA, where rooms are generally less expensive than at a hotel. It is often convenient to reserve a room for a night or two on arrival, until one has time to find other accommodation. In some cases, it may be necessary to share a room. Accommodation for one night will cost about $13.

Hotels

The price quoted in a Canadian hotel is for the room only; meals are not included. A single room with bathroom costs a minimum of $30-$40 a day. Rooms can be reserved by telephone or letter, but will not be held beyond the stipulated day of arrival unless part of the room's cost (deposit) has been paid in advance. There is a specified check-out time when rooms must be vacated. Arrangements can always be made for baggage to be looked after, or "checked", until a guest is ready to leave. Failure to observe the check-out time usually involves a charge for an additional day.

Travel in Canada: Most bus, railway and airport terminals have an information counter where free timetables and information can be obtained. If you wish to insure your baggage, you should ask at the information counter.

Bus

Bus travel is the least expensive but the slowest means of transportation on very long trips. On shorter runs
