

The CHAIRMAN: I do not think this will need an answer. Interpretation please.

Mr. TREMBLAY (Interpretation): To follow up Mr. Pickersgill's question, in your appreciation of the newspaper opinions, do you take account of pseudo-journals like La Réforme, so-called?

The CHAIRMAN: Mr. Dorion?

Mr. DORION (Interpretation): Mr. Fraser, I think you have, have you not, every week a press review of the weeklies?

Mr. FRASER: This is a program which is on the air to which you may be referring, and it is not under my jurisdiction; but in English it is called Neighbourly News and it is a summary of the news reported in the weekly press.

Mr. DORION (Interpretation): Do you have the same thing on the French network?

Mr. OUMET: Yes, on the French radio network, I think it is called La Revue Des Hebdomadaires. It used to be on on Sunday, but, personally, I do not hear it very often because at that time, generally, I am on my way to church.

Mr. DORION: Mr. Chairman, I would like to compliment the C.B.C. on that program.

The CHAIRMAN: Yes, Mr. Dorion?

Mr. DORION (Interpretation): I would like to say at this point that this review program is, in fact, very well done, and I wish to express the hope that it will become more so, and that most of the Quebec weeklies which express local opinions may be consulted as much as possible.

The CHAIRMAN: Yes, Mr. Pickersgill?

Mr. PICKERSGILL: Mr. Chairman, I hope this does not mean that Mr. Dorion does not go to church.

Mr. DORION: Yes, I do, but at a different time.

Mr. JOHNSON (Chambly-Rouville): Supplementary to this question, Mr. Chairman, I am very pleased to learn that C.B.C. has become very religious since La Belle de Céans.

Mr. FRASER: We are on the side of the angels.

Mr. CHAMBERS: When somebody phones up about a program, is this phone call handled by your department?

Mr. FRASER: Yes. We make a daily summary of telephone calls and of mail. We try to summarize the gist of a telephone call; and this is passed along to our program people.

Mr. CHAMBERS: When some one phones they are directed to your department?

Mr. FRASER: Yes, normally.

Mr. CHAMBERS: Do you maintain a service as long as the station is on the air?

Mr. FRASER: It all depends on the location. In Toronto and Montreal these calls are directed to the information desk after five o'clock at night. Prior to five o'clock they are directed to the audience relations section.

Mr. CHAMBERS: And that desk is open until when?

Mr. FRASER: I think it is open until 11 o'clock.

Mr. CHAMBERS: I remember the most satisfactory telephone conversation I ever had with the C.B.C. was when I telephoned to complain about a late movie, and the only person I could get was the sweeper. He agreed with me completely.
