

Notice of amendments.

109. No important amendment may be proposed to any private bill in the House unless one day's notice of the same has been given.

Reprinting of bills when amended.

110. Private bills amended by any committee may be reprinted by order of such committee; or after being reported, and before consideration in the House, may be reprinted in whole or in part as the Clerk of the House may direct; and the cost of such reprinting shall, in either case, be added to the cost of the first printing of the bill and be payable by the promoter of the same.

Amendments by the Senate.

111. When any private bill is returned from the Senate with amendments, the same not being merely verbal or unimportant, such amendments are, previous to the second reading, referred to the standing committee to which such bill was originally referred.

Record of Private bills.

112. A record shall be kept in the private bills office of the name, description, and place of residence of the parties applying for a private bill or of their
