

41, rue des Ecoles
Paris.

April the twenty-fourth.

Dear Sir Arthur,

I should like to tell you how delighted I was to receive your kind letter of congratulations the other day. To one, who like myself, is doubly attached to Macmillan, the good wishes of her Principal are particularly precious. I hope within a few weeks time to have the pleasure of sending you a copy of my thesis. I know my father will be very pleased when I tell him that you wrote to me; it was indeed most considerate.

With best wishes I remain, sir,

Yours respectfully,

Felix Walter.
