

attack the upper; but in the evening they sent out to the camp, and offered terms of capitulation.

I have the farther pleasure of acquainting you, that during this tedious campaign, there has continued a perfect good understanding between the army and navy. I have received great assistance from admirals Durell and Holmes, and from all the captains; indeed every body has exerted themselves in the execution of their duty; even the transports have willingly assisted me with boats and people on the landing the troops, and many other services.

I have the honour to be, &c.

CHARLES SAUNDERS.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1759.

Early this Morning, Capt, Campbell, Commander of His Majesty's Ship the Royal George, arrived here, with a Letter from Sir Edward Hawke, to Mr. Cleveland, of which the following is a Copy.

Royal George off Penris Point, Nov. 24, 1759.

SIR

IN my letter of the 17th, by express, I desired you would acquaint their lordships with my having received intelligence of 18 sail of the line and 3 frigates of the Brest Squadron, being discovered about twenty-four leagues to the N. W. of Belleisle, steering to the eastward; all the prisoners however agree, that on the day we chased them, their Squadron consisted, according to the accompanying list, of four ships of 80, six of 74, three of 70, eight of
