

Instead of Venite, exultemus, this Hymn shall be used.

O Give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

Let them give thanks, whom the Lord hath redeemed: and delivered from the hand of the enemy.

For we gat not the Land in possession through our own sword: neither was it our own arm that helped us.

But thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance: because thou hadst a favour unto us.

I will always give thanks unto the Lord: his praise shall be ever in my mouth.

He hath not dealt with us after our sins: nor rewarded us according to our wickednesses.

Praise the Lord, O my soul: and forget not all his benefits: For the arms of the ungodly shall be broken: but the Lord upholdeth the righteous.

They shall not be confounded in the perilous time: and in the days of dearth they shall have enough.

He blesteth them so, that they multiply exceedingly, and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

The salvation of the righteous cometh of the Lord: who is also their strength in the day of trouble.

The Lord shall give strength unto his people: the Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost.
