

until such Brother has done speaking ; and at all times when the Master shall strike to order with his Gavel, a profound silence shall be observed ; and no private altercations or disputes shall be suffered during Lodge hours, nor is any member to leave the Lodge Room without permission from the Chair ; and whenever it shall be deemed necessary to appoint Committees to transact any business relating to this Lodge, the power of nominating the Brethren for such Committee shall be vested in the Master, subject to the approval of a majority of the members present.

4. The Cash or Fund, as well as the Jewels, and all other things belonging to this Lodge, shall be, and they are hereby vested in, and made and deemed the property of the Master and Wardens for the time being ; so that any actions or suits that may happen to be necessary for the preservation or recovery of the same or any part thereof, may and shall be brought or commenced in their names, in trust for the use and benefit of the Lodge, and to be paid, applied, and disposed of, as a majority of the members shall in due form, think proper to direct.

5. Every member of this Lodge, on the day of his admission, shall be directed by the Master to sign these Bye Laws, in the Lodge Book kept for that purpose ; and the Master shall cause a copy of them to be given to each member on his signature being attached thereto, that every Brother may inform himself of his Masonic duties.
