

school devoted to textiles is established to keep it abreast of the world's progress, such a policy will, with the other blessings of Heaven, place Canada in a position of complete independence, so far as the essential things of this material life are concerned.