The great Dictionary and Bible sales conducted by The World were considered the marvels of the age. This is a greater bargain. It was only because a syndicate of leading newspapers placed the largest order ever given to a printing house that such an offer can

The price of the large Cyclopedia Sets is usually so high, from $50 to $100, that they are invariably sold on the instalment plan. The publishers of "Everybody's Cyclopedia" took advantage of these facts, and from a revision of all these various large and good cyclopedias they have compiled all that is good—all that is necessary— and have merely eliminated or condensed that which would be of interest to a specialist or technical student.
