Special Display is Being Given Saturday to a Huge Collection of Men's Caps for Spring Wear

The finest showing of Caps that has ever been brought together in the Store, representing the newest shapes that will be worn this spring. The display well indicates, too, that the cap will be worn more than ever this spring, and many are the occasions for which it is considered almost indispensable, such as holiday wear, walking, boat and train travel, to wear to concert and theatre, etc. Look over the display on Saturday; to make selection easy, we have devoted a complete counter to each price, as follows:—

At 75c—A large and complete showing of men's and youths' styles in light and dark shades of brown and grey, also navy blue. Mostly in a neat medium golf shape, with band around bottom edge and with medium size peak.

At $1.00—Is a particularly fine assortment of styles and colors. Light and dark grey worsteds, medium brown and heather mixed tweeds, herringbone, grey and black and shepherd's plaid effects, also light grey tweeds, folding pocket caps of dark grey corded silk that can be rolled up as small as a pocket handkerchief, and are ideal for train travel, etc.

At $1.25—We have had made, especially for our own trade, a golf cap of fairly large shape, especially adapted for motoring—a distinct style from those worn by chauffeurs. Beautifully made of soft, imported tweeds in delicate heather shades of greenish brown. Finished by hand throughout and with satin linings. At the same price is also a line of very dressy

French made silk caps, in neat shepherd's plaid and checks.

At $1.50—A number of dressy shapes, in light and dark green and brown heather mixtures, with shot silk linings. Also a number of new and distinctive check patterns.

Main Floor—James St.

ROWELL BANISH THE BAR PLANK TO BE READOPTED BY ALLIANCE

Provincial Convention Called on by Political Action Committee to Stay in Liberal Party Boat for Another Year—Father Minehan Entertains the Delegates.

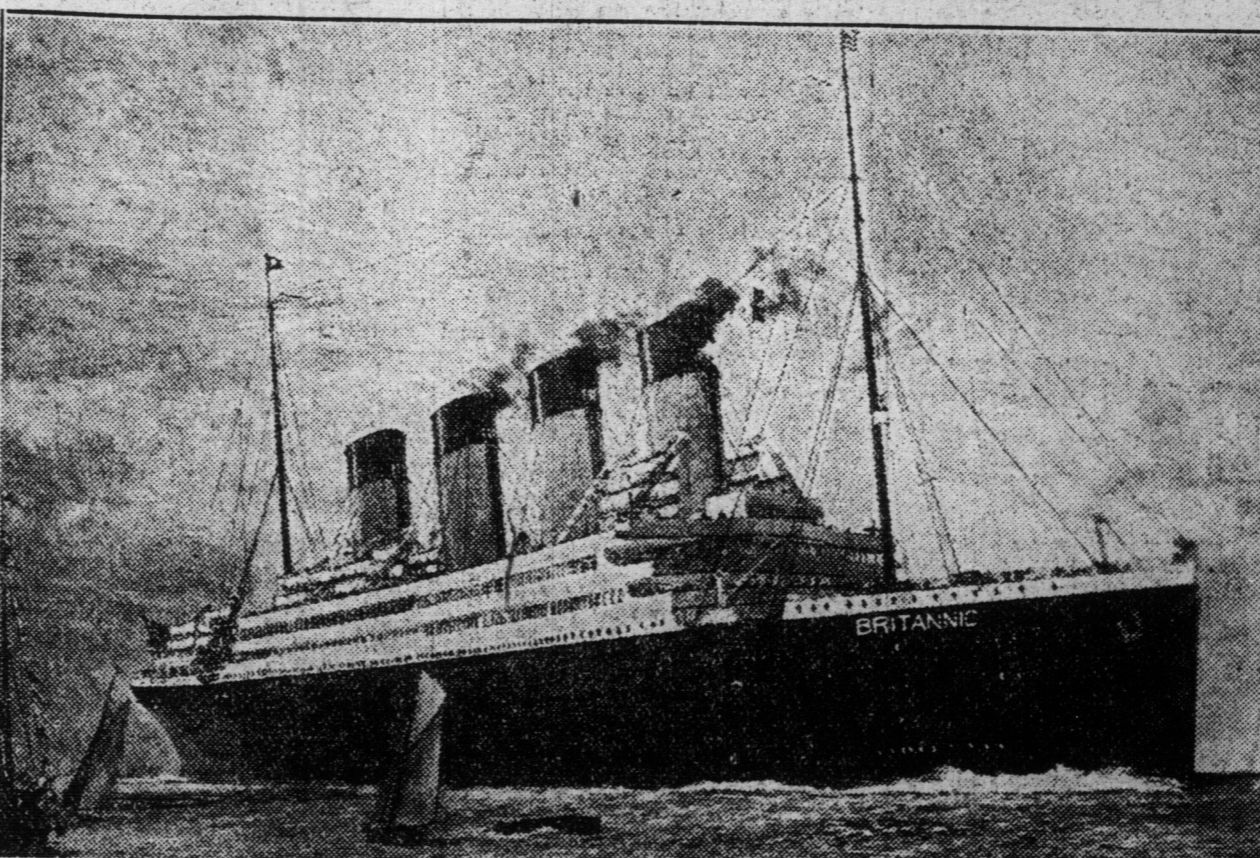

Rev. Father Minehan featured the Ontario Alliance convention yesterday by his humorous hit in the afternoon at "The Theology of Mr. Bung." With whimsical drollery, he pilloried Mr. Bung as a social and economic expert, and "now," he said, "we have Mr. Bung the theologian." This was with respect to a pamphlet issued to Roman Catholic voters in local option contests, stating that "the Pope is opposed to 'abstinence.'" Father Minehan pointed out a number of Catholic temperance societies, personally he urged the prohibitionist and he believed the increasing number of his co-religionists would take the same stand. Law Enforcement. The convention took up the law enforcement report at the morning session. Various amendments to the license law were proposed.

ment, both in its educational and legislative aspects. "Catch Me Pal" Work. Rev. R. J. Patterson of Armagh gave a number of instances of the potency of the catch my pal temperance propaganda. His magnetism, wit and eloquence was said by the votaries of the movement to eclipse that of any temperance speaker since the days of John B. Gough. The Alexander Choir and a large number of delegates, who are members of church choirs, led the temperance campaign songs. Ex-Mayor Joseph Oliver presided.

NOTED HEBREW LAWYER WILL ADDRESS ZIONISTS

Sunday next the Jews of Toronto will receive another prominent Hebrew from Montreal in the person of Mr. Louis Fitch. Mr. Fitch was one of the counsel in the famous libel case which was tried in Quebec last summer, involving a prominent citizen and a priest of that city, who in public lectures and pamphlets advocated the exclusion of Jews from Canada on the ground that their religion taught them to deceive Christians and to practice dishonesty against them, and that according to the injunctions of the Jewish faith they were required to use Christian blood for ritual purposes. The firm of Jacobs & Fitch were also engaged by the State of New York in its attempt to extradite Harry K. Thaw from Canada. Mr. Fitch, who is chairman of Zionist propaganda for Canada, will address a Zionist mass meeting to be held Sunday, March 1, in the Lyric Theatre at 2:30 p.m. under the auspices of the "North Zion Kadman.

CHINQUY CASE IS AGAIN IN COURTS

Editor Appeals From Verdict in Favor of Former Priest's Daughter.

MONTREAL, Feb. 26.—In the revision court this morning, before Chief Justice Sir Charles Peers Davidson and Justices Archibald and St. Pierre, the argument began in the appeal of the case of Dame Rebecca Chiquay against Joseph Beggs. The superior court had awarded the plaintiff $3000 damages. She alleged she was the legitimate daughter of Charles Chiquay, a former Catholic priest, who had married in the United States, and Euphémie Allard. They were married in the State of Illinois on Jan. 13, 1864. She further stated that she is the wife of Prof. Joseph L. Morin of McGill University, and married according to the laws of the United States.
