

- 53. —and to persons invited on the defendant's premises.
- 54. —and to tenants.
- 55. —and to owners of vessels navigating rivers.

VI. LIABILITY OF EMPLOYER FOR INJURIES RESULTING FROM THE NON-PERFORMANCE OF ABSOLUTE DUTIES.

- 56. Generally.
- 57. Duty to comply with a statute.
- 58. Duty of a municipality to keep highways in safe condition. Generally.
- 59. Liability incurred where the contractor is employed by the municipality itself.
- 60. Liability incurred where the contractor is employed by a private person.
- 60a. Necessity of showing that the municipality had notice of the dangerous conditions.
- 61. Duties imposed on grantees of franchises and special privileges in respect to highways.
- 62. Duties incident to the exercise of corporate and other franchises. Generally.
- 62a. Liability in respect to construction work.
- 62b. Liability in respect to the operation of the completed plant.
  - (a) Liability of railway companies—Generally.
  - (b) Liability of railway companies considered with reference to the legality of the contractual arrangements.
  - (c) Liability of companies other than those operating railways.
- 63. Duty to see that no nuisance is created or maintained.
- 64. Duty to insure safety.
- 64a. Duty to avoid interfering with the right of lateral support.
- 65. Duty not to impede the public in the use of highways.
- 66. Duties assumed by an express contract.
- 67. Duties arising out of implied contract.
  - (a) Carriers of passengers.
  - (b) Carriers of goods.
  - (c) Consignees of goods conveyed on railways.
  - (d) Persons giving public exhibitions.
  - (e) Masters.
  - (f) Landlords.
- 68. Duty to rebuild party wall.