SUPPLY—REPRESENTATION OF THE MARITIME PROVINCES.

Attention called to the representation in the House—Mr. J. W. Daniel—9780.

Crocket, O. S. (York, N.B.)—9830.

Pugsley on the question in the provincial legislature—9830. He has become a colleague of those in whose faith he expressed such confidence in 1905—9831. Within the past year the constitution amended regarding subsidies—9832. Stated that there would be no possibility of the diminution of representation—9833. Judgment based upon the subsequent amendments to the B. N. A. Act—9834. And not upon the Act to which they were parties—9835.

Daniel, J. W. (St. John City)—9780.

This matter up before the four provinces for a long time before confederation—9780. Quotes Aylesworth that the Quebec scheme had been adopted—9781. Quotes Albert J. Smith, Hon. Peter Mitchell, and a resolution of the New Brunswick House—9782. Quotes the British North America Act—9783. The bond under which we entered the union is discarded and made of no effect—9784. Views of Hon. Geo. Brown and Sir John A. Macdonald—9785. The aspect of increase to the pivotal province; Sifton's Bill of 1898—9786. The result of this added land on the representation—9787. People of New Brunswick had no reason to suppose a protest would be regarded; the New Brunswick resolution—9788-9. Quotes Hon. Messrs. Tweedie and Pugsley—9790-1. What Mr. Hazen and Hon. Mr. Hill said—9792. His resolution on the Order Paper; will not move it to-day—9793. The Act of 1871 authorizes the increase of boundaries under mutual agreements—9794. Lefurgey, A. A.—Con.

—9821. Speech from the Throne, and speech moving the Address in 1903, in the provincial legislature—9822. Here was a protest from the provincial legislature—9823. The case of British Columbia on all fours with that of Prince Edward Island—9824. Strong appeal was based on the question of its not receiving six members in perpetuity—9825. Only reasonable to suppose these gentlemen foresaw what would happen 9826. The Prime Minister, because Prince Edward Island is a small province, referred the matter to the courts—9827. Quotes Mr. Edward Palmer—9828. Why delay doing justice till the representation reaches vanishing point—9829. Does not see how the Premier can throw cold water on the case made out—9830.

McLean, A. A. (Queens, P.E.I.)—9806.

The Maritime provinces are suffering under a wrong which is no fault of their own—9806. Legislature of Prince Edward Island on representation by population in 1865—9807. People insisted that they should have six representatives in the Commons—9808. This parliament should take steps to give us back the representation—9809. It is not necessary at all to go to the Imperial parliament—9810. Immediate relief should be given—9811.

Martin, A. (Queens, P.E.I.)—9780.

Does not know any subject which has created greater differences of opinion than this—9811. Quotes resolution and remarks of Sir A. T. Galt, and Hon. George Brown—9812. The central idea then was that the maritime provinces would increase in population—9813. Quotes Messrs. Haviland, Palmer and Howe—9814. The Coles and Whalen administration—9815. Quotes Hon. Geo. Coles and Hon. A. A. Macdonald—9816. Prince Edward Island would not have entered the union without six representatives—9817. The constitution changed in regard to the subsidy—9818. There was no such thing as sending this to the Privy Council—9819. They are going to amend the constitution and put something in that is not in it—9820. Equalization of representation in the Senate would remedy the grievance to some extent—9821.

Turgeon, O. (Gloucester)—9795.

This question an academic one to-day; does not appeal to the people—9795. Representation, includes representation in the Senate as well as in the Commons—9796. The provision of permanent equal representation in the Senate—9797. Quotes Sir John Macdonald to the delegates at Quebec—9798.
