SOME OPINIONS OF "JOSIAH ALLEN'S WIFE."

The Herald, New York: "Her fun is not far fetched but easy and spontaneous. She is now witty, now pathetic, yet ever strikingly original."

The Home Journal, New York: "She is one of the most original humorists of the day."

The New Era, Lancaster, Pa.: "Undoubtedly one of the truest humorists. Nothing short of a cast-iron man can resist the exquisite, droll and contagious mirth of her writings."

The Woman's Journal, Boston: "The keen sarcasm, cheerful wit and cogent arguments of her books have convinced thousands of the 'folly of their ways,' for wit can pierce where grave counsel fails."

Inter-Ocean, Chicago, says: "Seldom has a writer combined such effective argument with keener humor and more genuine pathos. There are hundreds of politicians who will be benefited, and see themselves as others see them, if they will read the chapters upon Josiah when the Senatorial bee got to buzzing in his bonnet, and when he concluded to expend the entire year's crop of apples in buying votes enough to send him to Washington. His ideas of 'subsidies,' 'free-trade,' and 'woman's rights,' are as good specimens of genuine humor as can be found in the language."

Miss FRANCES E. WILLARD says: "Modern fiction has not furnished a more thoroughly individual character than 'Josiah Allen's Wife.' She will be remembered, honored, laughed and cried over when the purely 'artistic' novelist and his heroine have passed into oblivion, and for this reason: Josiah Allen's Wife is

'Creature not too bright or good
For human nature's daily food.'

She is a woman, wit, philanthropist, and statesman all in one, and I 'prophesy' that Sweet Cicely's gentle, firm hand shall lead Josiah Allen's Wife onward into literary immortality."
