

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

ART. 4. Every Fowler desiring to join the Club must be proposed by two members, who will vouch that their candidate is of good morals and repute, and that he has attained the age of eighteen years. The subscription shall be payable when the motion for admission is made, but in case the candidate is rejected the money shall be refunded.

ART. 5. The Club may not receive new members but at its monthly and special meetings; they shall be balloted for, and one black ball will have the effect of annulling two white ones.

SUBSCRIPTION AND DUTIES.

ART. 6. Every Fowler who is a member of the Club shall pay an annual subscription of 50 cents, payable in advance. Each member will be given a card signed by the President and Secretary, bearing the date of his admission, and having endorsed upon it the payment received by the Treasurer.

ART. 7. Every member in arrears for three months, at the expiration of that time, shall be notified to pay up by the Treasurer, and if, after such notice, the arrears are not paid before the next monthly meeting, he shall be suspended during such time as the Club may see fit. Should he ask to be reinstated he will have to pay the sum due by him, as may appear by the books; but if it should be found that his arrears arose from sickness or absence from the city, a further delay of three months shall be granted him to pay his arrears.

ART. 8. In the case of a member's death being caused by accident while fowling, an allowance of not less than twelve dollars shall be made by the
