HAD AN AWFUL TEMPER

George Vanstone Seems Indifferent Under Charge of Murder.

GODERICH, Dec. 19.—That the said John Freddie Vanstone came to his death by beating at the hands of his father, George Vanstone, before 10 o'clock on the night of Dec. 15, in the Town of Goderich.
This was the verdict rendered by the jury after 15 minutes' deliberation this afternoon, after hearing the evidence into the murder of Freddie Vanstone, who was beaten to death with a broomstick by his father.
Since George Vanstone has been incarcerated in the jail here for the murder of his little son Freddie he seems to be entirely indifferent to the awful peculiar he is in. He is unconcerned with visitors, and has eaten heavy meals and slept well ever since his incarceration last Thursday night. The officials of the jail say that the man is absolutely not responsible for the crime, or else he would act otherwise.
Popular opinion, however, is against Vanstone; everyone thinks that he was not goaded on to commit the crime by presenting the car, as was alleged, entirely by his temper. Men in the neighborhood had frequently been called in before the day of the tragedy to present the car, and some were of these tantrums, but could do nothing with the man. The sounds of screaming children and the common senses issuing from the house.

Inquest Adjourned.
Coroner Orr continued the inquest into the death of William Plunkett, at the morgue last night. Several of the passengers who were on the Dundas when the accident happened gave evidence. None were able to throw much light as they had not seen the wagon until after it had been struck by the car. Mrs. Rowan and Magwood said that death had been almost instan-taneous, and was due to injuries received about the head.
Pending the recovery of Harry Mc-Dowell, who also figured in the accident, the inquest was adjourned until Dec. 21.
