QUEBEC BRIDGE STOOD THE SUPREME TEST

Two Trains Approximating Fourteen Million Pounds Allowed to Rest on Central Span.

Quebec, Aug. 21.—Under ideal weather conditions and in the sight of thousands of anxious spectators, the Quebec bridge, one of the world's greatest engineering feats, withstood the supreme test to which it was put this afternoon, when two huge trains loaded to capacity and weighing approximately fourteen million pounds, steamed out over the central span and their weight was allowed to rest on the span simultaneously. Although no special trains were run to the site of this event, thousands of people from this city and the surrounding districts motored to witness the trial.

TOUCHED A LIVE WIRE. Ottawa, Aug. 21.—Oscar Gleason, 31 Tache street, Hull, employed with the E. B. Edgely company, was severely burned about the arms, legs and body this afternoon when he came in contact with a live wire which sent 10,000 volts of electricity thru his body. His condition is reported as serious.

CLASS ONE MEN MAY VOLUNTEER FOR SIBERIA

Men who come within class one of the Military Service Act but who report for service before being called to the colors are now to be given the option of enlisting for service with the Canadian expedition going to Siberia instead of having to go to France. These men will, under this new order, practically have the status of volunteers if they elect to go to Russia instead of to France. Officers with machine gun experience in Russia are asked to make application to Lieut.-Col. James George A.A. G. Toronto military district. Their application may be made either by letter or in person.

FIGHTING ALL IN OPEN; GERMAN GAS USELESS

London, Aug. 21.—A Canadian ambulance man's experience in the great fight are graphically described by Pte. A. Hope in a letter received by his father, living in Exeter. He says: "The fighting was all open, so Fritz could not use gas. I was glad of that, as I hate to wear a gas mask. We had waited at one point while Fritz evacuated a village. So close are the stretcher-bearers on our heels in this open warfare that stretcher-bearers go over with the infantry. "The prisoners are a fine lot of men physically. We give them plenty of work carrying stretchers. "I am writing this in a Fritz officer's dugout, which he inhabited yesterday. He left home. Souvenirs in bed, which I found in my clothes today. They are a rotten lot. There is not much to discriminate between any of them. Some things I have seen would make you feel disgusted at the sight of any German. "Everyone here has the glad smile, for this was the finest achievement yet of Canadians. The sight of thousands in a cavalry charge was magnificent. Tanks, which go about ten miles an hour, are bewildering."

KITCHENER'S CASUALTIES.

Kitchener, Aug. 21.—Sergeant Albert E. Deal, reported in yesterday's casualties as wounded, is today reported dead, according to official information received by his wife, who resides at 228 West King street. Today Mrs. William Robertson, 38 Lydia street, was notified that her son, Pte. William Robertson, is a casualty, having been wounded by gunshot in the chest. He went over with the 11th Battalion. Driver Elton L. Witmer is reported wounded in the arms and legs, according to an official message to his father, Mr. A. Witmer, 46 Brubacher street. Pte. Witmer went across with the 5th Battery of Guelph and has been in France for seventeen months.

Windsor Record Will Change Name Under New Ownership

Windsor, Aug. 21.—On Sept. 1, the Windsor Record, the only daily newspaper in Essex County, will pass to the control of its new owner, William Herrman of Saskatoon, a well-known newspaperman of the west. It is understood the paper will appear under a new name, probably The Border City Star, and will be enlarged to 16 pages.

CANADIAN CAVALRY RIDE TO DEATH

Small Body Attempted to Gallop Thru Wood Strongly Held by Enemy.

CAPTURED VILLAGE

Rode Over Trenches and Wire and Held Ground in Face of Heavy Attacks.

With the Canadian Forces, Aug. 21.—It is now possible to record some of the exploits of the Canadian cavalry on the morning of the battle of Amiens. None is more tragic and wonderful than the ride to death of some of the men of a well-known western regiment. To the cavalry was set the task of breaking thru the enemy lines and destroying his back organization. Under some desperate adventures in this quest over country sattered with trenches and wire and containing hidden nests of enemy machine guns.

Under this misrepresentation a small body of cavalry attempted to gallop thru the woods down the road, a stronghold that did not fall into the hands of the French until nearly a week later. Straight down the road they rode, thru the ranks of the advancing infantry, but they were wiped out long before they reached their objective. One trooper alone got within 100 yards of it. Some empty saddles returned, and at night half a dozen wounded men crawled back into our lines.

More success came to another squadron of the same regiment, whose captain holds both the V.C. and M.C. Advancing along this fatal road, the squadron met very heavy machine gun fire west of Le Quessy, coming from the direction of the road, and crossed the French infantry line, and then, galloping over the trenches and wire, captured the village of Andechy, and with a very large enemy supply depot, and a considerable number of prisoners. The squadron held the village in face of enemy fire for several hours.

Another famous cavalry regiment, whose deeds in the South African war are a matter of Canadian history, made, on the opening day, an attack on Quenebe, but the charge was stopped by the enemy's machine guns in a sunken road. The squadron swung to the right and the left, and here the major leading got in a corporal, defended himself in a scrub for eleven hours against the attacking Boche, finally rejoining his command under cover of night.

In the meantime, one troop galloped into Fresnoy, on the right, surprising the garrison and rounding up 150 prisoners. When the attack came back in force, and the troop was obliged to withdraw, rejoining the regiment with all their prisoners. A remarkable spectacle of a trooper leading a pack of ammunition mules galloping with his reins over his arm and emptying his carbine at the enemy.

BRITISH SUBMARINE SINKS GERMAN U-BOAT

London, Aug. 21.—A British and a German submarine met. The enemy boat was detected in the North Sea, penetrated British waters and was lurking to pounce upon any ship that might cross its track. The British boat was returning to base after an arduous cruise. Both boats were on the surface, but the British boat picked up the enemy and dived before she herself was sighted. She fired two torpedoes, and thru her periscope the resulting explosion was observed. Within five minutes later the British crew found one survivor swimming among the wreckage. He was the captain of the German. The other officers and the crew had all gone down in their boat.

Sun Burned Skin

You want a healthy summer tan. But sometimes you get it too quickly and then there is a few days of suffering. The application of Dr. Chase's Ointment takes out the stinging and burning and leaves the skin delightfully soft and smooth. Because it is equally effective in relieving stings of insects and ivy poisoning as well as chafing and skin irritations it is invaluable in the summer camp.

ADVANCE OF FRENCH CONTINUED AT DAWN

Paris, Aug. 21.—French troops continue their advance along the whole front between the Oise and the Aisne this morning. Carlepoint and Cuts have been captured by the French, according to the official report issued at the war office today. After sharp fighting ground has been taken west of Lassigny by the French. The text of the statement reads: "During the night the situation between the Oise and the Aisne remains unchanged. The enemy did not attempt any reaction. This morning our troops continued their advance along the whole front. "Carlepoint and Cuts have fallen into our hands. "We have taken ground west of Lassigny after sharp fighting. "A number of German surprise attacks in Champagne were repulsed."

HALF A MILE GAIN IN FLANDERS FIGHT

British Advance on Front of Two Thousand Yards.

London, Aug. 21.—The British in their attack this morning in Flanders from the Loos hospital to Koudeker, made on a front of 2000 yards, penetrated the German lines to a depth of half a mile and took 50 prisoners.

The advance of the French army commanded by General Mangin this morning was down the wooded slopes to the south bank of the River Oise, along which stream the line now runs. The news received in London this afternoon was incomplete and no details were to be had of the fighting except that the Germans put up a determined resistance at many points, but were swept aside by the French onslaught. There also was no news as to what was happening on General Mangin's left, where undoubtedly the French were advancing in accordance with the new line gained by General Mangin's forces.

CANADA'S PROSPERITY RESTS ON THE FLEET

Without the Humble Merchantman the Nation Would Face Disaster.

Since war was declared, Canada has witnessed a period of financial prosperity such as probably has never occurred in the history of the country. Wheat is high, pork and beef command top prices and all the food produced is sold at a figure that would have been undreamed of a decade ago. From a point of view given as a financial depression, in a short space of four years the nation has reached the height of prosperity. The reason for this may be roughly given as the high price, which is in itself conducive to high prices. But it must be remembered that our commerce is carried by the sea. The reason that Canada today enjoys her prosperity is that 200,000 men of the merchant marine are braving the perils of every destructive device known to modern maritime warfare to carry Canada's goods to overseas markets. Fifteen thousand of them have already perished, and they have left behind sorrowing families. As members of an un- official service no pension is granted the dependents of merchant sailors. Yet they gave their lives for the empire. "Sailors' Week" is being held from Sept. 1st to 7th to raise moneys to relieve the distress of their families. Every dollar that is collected will be used by the Navy League of Canada in helping these unfortunate women and children. Ontario's objective is 11,000,000. Let us never yet falter. Give generously! Let your motto be "They shall not want."

Sarnia Street Railway Men Demand Five Cent Increase

Sarnia, Aug. 21.—Employees of the Sarnia Street Railway have presented a petition to the company demanding five cents an hour increase in wages. All motormen and conductors, with one exception, signed it. They are at present receiving 30 cents an hour. The men will meet the board of directors Thursday afternoon and if their demands are not met they will likely strike Thursday night. About fifty men are involved.

FIGHTING IN AIR ON A HUGE SCALE

During Past Week 226 Enemy Machines Destroyed and 108 Driven Down.

DROPPED MANY BOMBS

Aided Infantry, Cavalry and Tanks and Raked Congested Roads of Retreat.

Ottawa, Aug. 21.—A summary of British aerial activity is given in a cable received here from the British ministry of information: "The outstanding feature of recent air fighting has been the severe magnitude of the conflicts on the British western front, particularly in the first week of the offensive. The battle raged heaviest on a certain day between the Albert and Amiens-Royes road. The enemy's forces considerably increased their offensive, but so that fighting on an unparalleled scale, continued throughout the day. Fifty British machines were reported missing, but 221 enemy machines were destroyed and 73 driven down, making a total bag of 280 enemy air force knocked out during the battle, not counting the kite balloons. During the whole week on the British western front 107 British machines were reported missing, but 145 enemy machines were destroyed and 108 driven down helplessly.

After the initial reverses the enemy's air resistance noticeably weakened but during the four following days, while 98 British machines were reported missing, 145 enemy machines were destroyed and 73 driven down, making a total bag of 280 enemy air force knocked out during the battle, not counting the kite balloons. During the whole week on the British western front 107 British machines were reported missing, but 145 enemy machines were destroyed and 108 driven down helplessly.

Meanwhile the British bombing squadrons throughout the week attacked enemy airbases, etc., as usual, dropping the usual amount of bombs and wrought the usual amount of damage to the enemy's military material and personnel. Much valuable help was also given to British infantry, cavalry and tanks in the battle by low flying British scouts who ceaselessly hovered over the battlefield in considerable numbers, attacking the enemy's resistance points and raising a large congested area of roads of retreating armies with machine gun fire. Moreover, the usual immense amount of contact patrol and counter-battery work was successfully carried out and thousands of negatives taken during the battle by British squadrons. In the Belgian theatre the British continued the offensive against the German naval bases, with the usual result—many direct hits and a number of destructive fires on all the usual points of attack.

The Royal Air Force made a number of brilliant destructive raids on German territory, attacking military objectives, while a successful raid was carried out by airplanes on the chemical works at Frankfurt where several bursts were observed in the centre of the objectives.

British machines were reported missing in the Mediterranean and eastern theatres, but in the course of British air activity eight enemy machines were destroyed and two downed. The R. A. F. contingent, in combination with the navy successfully attacked a large German submarine base and brought it down blazing from great height.

WEARING SERVICE BADGES.

Women Are Liable to Prosecution for Doing So. It has been discovered that women relatives and friends of soldiers in Toronto district have commenced to wear war service badges, using them as brooches. The war service badge department at Toronto headquarters has been notified by Ottawa that it is contrary to the wishes of the government in issuing them being solely that they would be worn by men to show what war services they had rendered. Warning is given that the authorities intend to enforce this ruling and that penalties will follow any disregard of it.
