NO DIVORCE BILL BY FEDERAL HOUSE

By Staff Reporter.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 26.—Members of parliament during the past few days have been receiving inquiries which indicate that some measure is abroad that some measure is before parliament at this session to establish divorce courts. Some of these inquiries are in the nature of a protest from local branches of soldiers' organizations in Ontario and a number of returned soldiers who desire to procure divorces are under the impression that the government is putting through a bill to confer jurisdiction upon provincial courts to grant divorces, and some of them are asking why "the Nickle divorce bill" is being held up.

No such measure is before parliament. At the last session W. F. Nickle, Unionist member for Kingston, introduced a bill to establish divorce courts in all the provinces of Canada and it met with sympathetic support from the prime minister. It was given second reading and was sent to a committee, but some objections were urged to the measure by members from Quebec, and it was not proceeded with. Since then the Nickle bill has been introduced at this session and no member at this session has introduced a similar bill.

As a matter of fact, the provincial courts have authority to grant divorce in all the provinces, except Ontario and Quebec. There is a strong opposition to divorce courts in Quebec, but the government would find little opposition to a bill establishing divorce courts in Ontario, it is recognized that the present procedure by which divorces for people living in Ontario and Quebec can be obtained thru an act of parliament is cumbersome and expensive. At the same time, there is no likelihood of the government dealing with the subject at the present session. The senate divorce committee has made it a rule for some time past to refund the $200 deposit required from an applicant for divorce, in case its application is made by a returned soldier, and to this extent divorces have been made cheaper. They still remain somewhat difficult and expensive because the applicant may often live a long way from Ottawa, and is put to considerable inconvenience and expense in bringing witnesses to the capital to give testimony before the senate divorce committee.

HOLY TRINITY ANNIVERSARY

The seventy-second anniversary of the consecration of the Church of the Holy Trinity (Oct. 27, 1847) was marked yesterday by special services. The Rev. W. J. Brain of St. Michael and All Angels' presided in the morning, and the Rev. L. R. Sherman, rector, in the evening. The rector, at the afternoon service in the Sunday school in the afternoon, unveiled the shield bearing on fourteen maple leaves the names of the fourteen former members of the Sunday school who fell in the war. The shield was given by the M.S.C.C. in connection with the school's gifts of Victory Bonds last year to the mission fund for Indians and Eskimos.

GRITS AND TORIES MUST TOE MARK

Labor Leaders Say Two Parties Now Dominated by U. F. O.

Patronage in Ontario is at an end. Ontario is going to have a U. F. O. labor government. This was the substance of an address delivered yesterday afternoon by James S. Brown at a largely-attended meeting of the labor party at the Labor Temple. "We are going to abolish the patronage system altogether," said the speaker.

W. F. Sweeney and Walter Rollo, Joseph Marks, J. W. Buckley, James Simpson, Magnus Sinclair and other well-known members of the labor party were the speakers of the day. Magnus Sinclair, in a short forceful address, stated his opinion that the talk of the new era which he heard at every street corner was a myth. "We have with us today as before the war the same masters, the same penury, the same opposing forces," he said.

"We are going to study the great steel strike and others in America to realize this fact. We see there the great corporations with their paid spies, their thugs, their hired assassins, ready and eager to waylay us on our way to our meetings as they did 25 years ago. No, no, this is no new era. But during the last two weeks we have laid the foundation for an era of grand promise. This can be furthered by joining forces with the party now linked up with the farmers."

"Take with a grain of salt all the rubbish you read in the press," was Joseph Marks' commentary upon the present situation. "We are going to make every Grit and Tory toe the mark. The U.F.O. leaders feel that their forces are big enough to undertake the responsibilities of government. The U.F.O. convention has decided to have no relations with either the Grits or Tories. They have stated that the labor party is part of their movement."

Mr. Marks continuing recounted the history of labor in the recent campaign. "The machine has been smashed for ever," he said. "Even colonels and legal lights now want to know how they can get into the party. Had Arthur Roebuck remained with us he would have stood a better chance today of being attorney-general of Ontario."

W. F. Sweeney, who followed, said: "I feel more honored as a defeated candidate in an honest cause than a victor in a campaign of dishonesty," he said. "They will have to look us again in Sudbury before we realize that we are licked. And within another two weeks such a chance may be given us. During the election a little section near Sudbury on the C.N.R. afforded the electorate food for thought. We had counted on a resident of Australia coming north to investigate, to find out if any votes happened to grow on the trees of the forests in the districts. I tell you these things because the principle of the press. The campaign up there was run against us by the combined force of Conservative satellites, grafters, regulators and the like. Conservatives who had no idea why they were Conservatives, and only three days before the elections a carload of whiskey was unloaded in the vicinity of these same people. Let me tell you we have men up north who with six months' training would make Hon. Dr. Cuddy look like one of the vaudeville show. One year ago trades unionists in our vicinity had only one charter with a better company of members, three of whom resigned because they had been warned they would be dismissed if they remained with the union. Today we have a hundred members and the railway is asking us to name our demands."

Mr. Sweeney referred to the time he was arrested as a socialist. "There they had me caged like a lion, dressed like a clown and fed like a hog. At the end of the day I was asleep. He had taken two drinks too many, and I was forced to remain in the witness box nine hours and conduct my own defense. Before that time I weighed 200 pounds odd; today I weigh 148 pounds."

Walter Rollo, chairman of the Labor forces in the new legislature was the principal speaker of the afternoon. "Our dreams have come true," he said at the commencement of his message to those gathered. "Toronto has not shown a defeat for Labor in any shape or form. You polled more votes than ever before. Victory has merely been delayed. Not so long ago we in Hamilton had only twenty members, then fifty, and at that we believed we were doing wonders. So we were, then. But in January, 1919, we had 125 members and elected nine laborites to municipal councils. Today we have a thousand members. What does this mean? It means this: that we have assured a thousand votes, we have a thousand friends of Labor, we have a thousand dollars merely in membership receipts. Add to this the virility and tact of our women. Yes, the work of our women must not be forgotten. I know of one subdivision in which a woman managed to get 195 voters to the poll out of a total of 205."

Tribute to Comrades.
Mr. Rollo paid his special meed of praise to the energy and sustained loyalty of Joseph Marks and Mr. W. F. Sweeney, organizers, who achieved almost unbelievable results during the campaign. "We are going to have a figure that each member of the legislature with U.F.O.-Labor affiliations must make himself an organizer for these two parties. He then dwelt upon the situation in London. "I am sorry," he said, "that some of our Labor leaders."

"That some of our Labor leaders have shown such sympathy for Sir Adam Beck. In my opinion his sympathy should be short at the Hydro-electricity."

trio Commission. What we want in the house is a man whose sympathies are also with the life and feelings of the great majority of the public. A man who is interested with the conditions under which many of us live. Dr. Hugh Stevenson is a tried member of our party of three years' standing. And let me say this: the party has some control over the actions of one of its members. Over Sir Adam J. W. Buckley one of the Australian members waiting for jobs. Its sheet is clean, and God willing, it will remain so. No longer are we going to allow lawyers, doctors, merchants, grafters and other party allegiants to represent us. I may say we are expecting to see some of our planks put into operation in the near future. The machine has been smashed for ever," he said. "Even colonels and legal lights now want to know how they can get into the party. Had Arthur Roebuck remained with us he would have stood a better chance today of being attorney-general of Ontario."

BOARD OF TRADE OPENS NEW LOUNGE ROOMS

Despite the inclement weather, more than 250 members and visitors turned out to the opening of the additional lounge rooms of the Board of Trade on the nineteenth floor of the Royal Bank building on Saturday last. The visitors were received by President K. J. Dunstan and Mrs. Dunstan, with Chas. McD. Hay, chairman of the house committee, and Mrs. Hay.

An orchestra was in attendance, and afternoon tea was served, after which the visitors made an inspection. Members and visitors alike expressed themselves as greatly pleased with the new addition, which is 75 feet by 30, and has 17 windows facing the west and north. The general tone color is blue and gold, while the furniture is of the stately Jacobean period.

The ceiling is beamed, and a number of beautiful electric fixtures are hung from it. Chesterfields, settees and heavy armchairs are scattered all over the room, giving it an appearance of cozy comfort. Part of the room will be used as an information bureau for members, and a library will also be installed.

An outstanding feature of the new additional lounge and other rooms opened to the members and their friends on Saturday afternoon is the sumptuous yet good taste which marks the entire furnishings.

The new rooms are located on the nineteenth floor of the Royal Bank building, with a number of large windows opening on the north and west and commanding a fine view of the city and harbor. The room itself is 75 feet long and the windows are hung with blue silk-striped curtains with blue lambrèques.

From the ceiling a beamed one-hung six candle-light pendants in pewter finish. On the floor are four handsome Axminster rugs, fitting in with the general color scheme of subdued blue.

The room is furnished in Jacobean oak, and comprises three long, massive carved tables, with a number of smaller tables and fine writing desks, at each of which is an electric lamp. Eight large settees, upholstered in tapestry, together with 18 large club and a number of wicker chairs complete the furnishings; the latter covered in blue and gold haircloth.

While there are not as yet many pictures on the walls (ten in number), they have been chosen from an artistic standpoint, and are in progress.

The Nujol Treatment as Sickness Prevention

Science, with anti-toxins, serums, and modern sanitation, has done much to prevent dangerous diseases; but the diseases so checked are comparatively few. On the other hand, 90% of all diseases have one common origin—constipation.

The dangers of constipation are so far-reaching, because the blood receives poisons from an infected mass within, and carries them directly to every organ of the body; and because constipation itself keeps the system in a run-down condition so that any infectious germs from without readily gain foothold.

Keep clear of constipation and you guard against serious disease. Nujol will remove constipation and prevent its return.

The action of Nujol is entirely different from that of any other constipation remedy. It is not a drug. Nujol softens the food waste and encourages the intestinal muscles to act naturally.

Nujol helps Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world. Get a bottle from your druggist today.

For valuable health hints—"Thirty Feet of Danger"—from, write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey) 50 Broadway, N.Y.

Warning:

Nujol is sold only in sealed bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark, as shown here. Beavers of products represented to be "the same as Nujol." You may suffer from substitution.

A U.V.L. ARGUMENT.

Discussion relative to the merits and demerits of the United Veterans' League developed into a disorderly fracas at the Red Triangle Club yesterday afternoon. Scuffles occurred within the building, and at times were renewed on the street, although no serious injuries were reported as a result of the proceedings.

An eye-witness informed The World last night that three men, apparently under the influence of liquor, sauntered into the building at about four o'clock in the afternoon. It was when one of these made depreciating remarks about the U.V.L. that the scuffle began, with a number participating. A policeman who appeared on
