RUSSIANS WIN IN FORWARD MARCH

Columns Converge on Stanislau Along Dniester River Line. MAKE MANY CAPTIVES Slav Armies Steadily Push Austro-Germans Before Their Advance. (Continued from Page one.) rapid way in which the Russians are able to move onward that the Austro-Germans have been disorganized, and they are retreating in very great disorder. Hundreds of prisoners continue to be brought in by Russian troops. Tysmenitza is situated on a tributary of the Dniester and on the Buczar-Stanislau Railway, already cut by the Russian occupation of Nisnow. Gen. Letchitzky also drove the Teutons from a series of heights and villages and captured the ridge north-west of Tysmenitza on a front extending to the Dniester River, and he also occupied the right bank of the River Vorona as far as Stokovechka. A Russian detachment also captured the left bank of the Koropiec River to its junction with the Dniester, east of Stanislau. For Admits Retirement. Austro-German retirement south of

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

HIPPODROME. In "Not My Sister," the Triangle Film Co. present another of their unusually strong five-part features, as the headline attraction at the Hippodrome next week. The photography is all that could be asked for so far as artistry is concerned, while the story is a thrilling one. Miss Freeman Benton, presenting "Handkerchief No. 15," has a comedy vehicle that affords her opportunities to provoke much laughter, while her well-balanced company assist materially in the all-time-provoking line. "The Three Dollars" are said to be excellent musicians, who play a number of instruments. Gertie Falls, the serial Venus, is a shapely young woman, who performs many difficult feats in midair, while "Bud" Lorraine, the cowboy ventriloquist, has a genuine surprise in his act. The Doris Trio, singing songs of the allied nations, and Ponini and Contil up-to-date entertainers from "Monkey Island," with Keystone comedies, complete the bill. T. Tickets on sale at Union Depot, Toronto City, C.P.R. building or can be procured on special trains from prominent motels at rate of $1.05 adult, 55 cents children. Good returning Aug. 12th only. 456 Pictured.—A merry sextet of the 123rd Battalion in this week's Toronto Sunday World. Individual portraits of Canadian overseas troops are a feature in this week's issue of The Toronto Sunday World.

CLUB, and on numerous occasions, Miss Pennett, the amateur birdman would drop in on the Pennett estate and damage young budding trees, plants and shrubs until Miss Pennett, becoming exasperated, went to the club and made a loud and strong protest.

FINE BILL AT STRAND. A sumptuous program has been arranged at the Strand Theatre for today and for the balance of this week. It is a "double-header" bill. Drama, with the tragic note, will be represented by "The Scarlet Woman," with Olga Petrova in the title role. This role of the woman "who was always 'where laughter raved' loud-st" where "wise frowed most freely, and where mirth reigned supreme" and of how love transformed her nature and career, is said to be the role that suits Madama Petrova the best of all the parts she has played. "Then there will be presented a superb example of comedy of the satiric kind, in "Captain Jinks of the Horse Marines." This is a comedy absolutely delicious in its settings and scenic effects, being on an unusually elaborate scale. Ann Murdock and Richard C. Travers are seen in the two principal parts. MADISON. "Saucy Pennie," otherwise known as Ann Pennington, the sensation of last year's Follies, made her bow to the audience at the Madison Theatre last night. She fully lived up to expectations and has already won a place in the hearts of fans that will last for a long time. Miss Pennington, with her tiny figure—she is 4 feet 10 inches short—can "get away" with a great deal of delightful sideplay that a person of bigger stature could not manage, and she certainly pleases her audience with her saucy ways. The play, "Susie Snowflake," is a well-chosen piece for her debut, for it gives her an opportunity to start out in a role with which she is entirely familiar. On the whole, the performance is a great success and bids fair to be the first of many really charming plays with Pennie as the star. The remainder of the program is well up to standard. LOEWS. The royal Manchu Chinese princess, Jue Quong Tai, whose father is one of the richest men in China, will appear as headliner on the bill at Lew's Yonge Street Theatre this coming week in an amazing song revue which has been the big theatrical hit of the season in New York. George Fisher, formerly of Fisher and Green, will furnish another headliner on this bill with his act, "Partners," a real treat. Others will be Valentine Vox, the master ventriloquist, with his production, "A Study in Black and White"; Artie Spigle and Jim Dunn, in a funny skit, presenting black face characters; Hazel Hickey and Helen Burke, two pretty and clever girls, strictly Irish, in a singing and pianolog; Morgan and Stuart and several others, besides the last chapter of that mysterious photo serial, the Iron Claw, and the "Who will it last see" "Who is the 'Shining Mask'."

RETURNING TO ENGLAND.

Special to The Toronto World. BRANTFORD, Ont., Aug. 9.—Lieut. Col. M. A. Colquhoun, D.S.O., leaves Thursday for England, to retake command there of the "Mad Fourth" Battalion, having declined to accept a brigadier position at Camp Borden. Before leaving he was given $100 by the Women's Patriotic League to buy comforts for his battalion.

DETERMINED TO FIGHT PROHIBITION CHANGE

Committee of One Hundred to War Against Granting Beer and Wine Licenses. Any attempt on the part of the Hearst Government to change the prohibition legislation is going to be fought by the Committee of One Hundred, according to a statement of E. F. Clement, K.C., the chairman, yesterday. It will even go so far as to oppose any change in the time of the taking of the referendum. "Determined and persistent warfare," Mr. Clement said, would be waged against any attempt to grant Ontario beer and wine licenses. "But," he said, "I don't believe there is any danger of anything like that coming into effect. We can depend on Mr. Hearst." Concerning the premier's statement regarding James A. Norris, Mr. Clement admitted it seemed strange. He believed the premier thinks he can whip the insurgent candidate into line once elected. He was not prepared to say whether a committee candidate would be in the field at the coming election. THREE BRANTFORD CASUALTIES Special to The Toronto World. BRANTFORD, Ont., Aug. 9.—Three Brantford casualties were added to the local list today. Mrs. W. C. Livingston, wife of Police Magistrate Livingston, received word that her son, Pte. Arthur of the Princess Pats was in hospital. He is suffering from gunshot. Pte. Ed Christie, 100 Dalhousie street, reported wounded, was a member of the 25th Brant Dragoons, and married John Kennedy, who formerly resided at 83 West Mill street, is also wounded.
