The New Party on Three Present Problems

Today we propose to discuss three, the Conservatives will say that it is a New bad thing, but that no power on earth pressing problems, and how the Party will deal with them. can put an end to it. Sir Robert Borden plied:

Now what is the truth about the Ross

Rifle? In 1902 the Dominion Government made a contract with Sir Charles Ross

a Scottish baronet, for the manufacture of a service rifle for the Canadian militia.

That contract has been a matter of public record for fourteen years and was under discussion at nearly every session of parliament from 1903 to 1910, inclusive. During those seven years the merits of the rifle were fiercely debated in parliament and before committees of the house. The Laurier government defended the rifle and the contract under which it was being manufactured, while the dership of Mr. (now Sir) R. L. Borden, general election of 1908, and again in 1911, altho, of course, in 1911 all other issues were lost sight of in the battle that raged around the supreme issue of reciprocity. If on September 22, 1911, any Conservative had been asked what would be the first thing done by the new

One problem is the activity Bourassa' and his sayings in Quebec Already the new party has been accused of unfriendliness to our French-speaking neighbors. La Patrie of Montreal ances that the new party was "stillthe Ross rifle nor declare itself im orn." In the same breath, however, th party is declared to be sufficiently alive o commit "stupidities" and to cherist designs inimical to Quebec and to Canadian unity!

We have no quarrel with Quebec. In deed, we believe many patriotic citizens of that province will be glad to join the new party. Both the old parties, we have been afraid of Mr. Bourassa and are anxious to make terms with him. The new party will make no allianc with Mr. Bourassa or anyone else who is interfering with recruiting or with Canada taking her full share in the war for liberty. The new party will not bend to any element in our body politic which is ot heart and soul with Canada and Britain against the kaiser.

But this surely does not mean that question the loyalty of Quebec or aspers the good name of her people. On the contrary, we are not sure that Mr. Bourassa at all represents the feeling and nents of Quebec. La Patrie says that the Borden government should ar-rest and otherwise punish Mr. Bourassa. We say, on the other hand, that the loya people of Quebec should discipline Mr. Bourassa, or, at least, repudiate him by their own patriotic words and deeds.

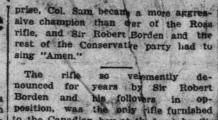

The Ross rifle, and especially the con tract of the government with the Ross Rifle Company, is a problem that clamors for drastic solution. The Telegram be lieves that Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Frederick Borden are responsible for making the contract, but that Sir Robert Borden is not to blame for carrying it out. It says, in effect, that he had no choice but to arm our soldiers at the front with a defective and almost useless rifle, because Sir Wilfrid made a "per petual" agreement with Sir Charles Ross. This contract The Telegram interprets to mean that we must buy and use the Ross rifle, no matter who is prime min-Col. Samo accepted the war portfoli

The Telegram, that has ben inde-pendent, and is now setting Concrvative again as election time approaches, ex-plains that in saying that Laujer and Borden were equally responsible for the Ross rifle is meant "Wilfrid Laurer and Fred Borden." It has nothing to say gainst Sir Robert Borden, but assures us that the Borden government is helpess because the Laurier government de a "perpetual" agreement with Sir Charles Ross which can never be changed long as the world endures. So it appears that not only are the old parties qually to blame for the Ross rifle situa on, but they are equally impotent. The Borden government, we are told, is help-

Borden gover..ment after assuming Another big problem is the railway power he would have unhesitatingly resituation. Yesterday our venerable and ever-to-be-respected neighbor of The Globe came out flat-footed for governnent ownership of all transportation lines, municipal, interurban and national. After much wandering and many hesi-tating steps The Globe now boldly declares that all the railways of Canada as he then was-to be minister of militia came to the faithful Conservative voter ust be united in one system, owned and operated by the Dominion Governsomewhat as a surprise. Col. Hughes had supported the Laurier governmen nent. But that is the doctrine of the new party, and we take it that The Globe desires to enroll itself under that party's on the subject of the Ross rifle. He was banner. If this be the case, there are the intimate personal friend of Sir Frederick Borden and, Sir Charles Ross. He certain formalities to be attended to. The had been denounced in unsparing terms Globe must declare itself and be attested if it is to do service in the ranks. > Possibly, however, The Globe intends o remain, with the Liberal party, with which it has been for more than half a entury associated. If that be the case, nay we ask whether it is voicing the platform of the Liberal party on the railway problem? Does it speak for Sir Wilfrid Laurier? If it coes, then the Liberal party already goes into the next campaign with a plank borrowed from the new party, but a strong plank that may hold many wavering Liberals in line.

WELCOME HIGHLANDERS

Thousands at Station to Cheer Hundred and Seventy-/ Third.

Hamilton, Thursday, Oct. 5.-S. F. Lazier, K.C., a well-known Hamilton churd man and plin nibropist, died esterday. The late Mr. Lazier was born in Picton, Ont. July 1, 1841, and received his early education at the Dundas Grammar School and the Victoria College, Cobourg, where he ob-tained the d gree of LL.B and M.A. He was appointed Q.C. by both the Ontario and Dominion Governments. He was a prominent member of the Hamilton Law Association, of which he was president, and also past presi-dent of the Ontario Bar Association. He was a Muson and past master of Templar Lodge. Two daughters and two sons survive. Hamilton accorded an enthusiastic welcome yesterday to the 173rd Cana-dian Highlanders upon their arrival from Camp Borden. At the Hunter street station, where they disembarked, they were cheered to the echo by friends and relatives. Acting Mayor Morris extended the official welcome

Morris extended the official welcome and Lieut.-Ccl. Bruce responded. The military authorities are glad to have the Dufferin and Halton Buttalions winter in Hamilton be-cause they believe it will stimulate recruiting. There is some difficulty in cruiting. There is some difficulty in securing quarters for the new uulis. The Royal Hotel is mentioned as a likely barracks, and negotiations are being opened for its use. A Christmas gift to each soldier is the aim of the United Patriotic So-cieties, and in no part of the world where the boys in khaki are fighting will Christmas be forgotten. Last week for the first time in a week the casualty list has been issued without the names of any local men listed as killed in action. Yesterday mine names were given as wounded. Alfred Straight was instantly killed yesterday when a freight train struck his motor car at the corner of Sher-man avenue and Burlington street. An inquest has been ordered. If Hamilton had a three-day market instead of a six-day institution the prices of fruit and vogetables would be lower, according to a member of the committee investigating the cost securing consolidated positions south of the Danube, the war in the Balkans has assumed a lively and significant aspect. The greatest advance was made yesterday by the Serbians, who have got well across the frontier into Serbian Macedonia. They captured the Petalino Peak on the western slope of Kaimakcalan, and they seized Pisoderi, at the base of Monte Cecebo. The Serbians have thus gained a vantage point southeast of Monastir, where the Cerna River forms a loop. Monastir is expected soon to fall. In heavy actions at Jelikoli, east of the Struma River, the British contingent repulsed the Bul-

Concerning the battle in the Dobrudja, on the front extending from the Danube to the Black Sea, on the other side of Bulgaria, the Roumanians report that they are continuing to make progress in the centre and that they gained an advantage on their left wing in the capture of a position at Amzacea Here they took 1000 prisoners, seven guns and much war material. The Rusclaimed. sians, who are apparently operating on the right wing, close to the Danube have brought a number of gunboats up stream and they are shelling the left flank of the enemy, while strongly attacking him frontally. Thus the foe is being subjected to a terrific cross fire against which no trenches can be made proof. This action resembles the action off the coast of Belgium during the battle of the Yser, except that the forces now employing the warships are on the offensive instead of on the defensive, as they were two years ago in the front. western theatre of the war.

* * * * Between Turtukai and Rustchuk, on the southern bank of the Danube, the enemy has hurried up detachments of Bulgarians, Germans, Austrians and in the Dobrudja sector. Today's offi-Turks, in an effort to dislodge the Roumanians before their making of per-Turks, in an effort to dislodge the Roumanians before their making of permanent defences as points of support for an invasion. As the zone under attack is forty miles long, it may be deduced without much mental effort that the Roumanians have crossed the river in more places than one, so the report issued by the Germans about forcing a withdrawal of the Roumanians at one point need not cause any alarm. The Bulgarian effort to throw men across the Danube to enter Roumania appears to be undertaken in emulation of the Roumanians rather than a deliberately considered and prepared move.

On the whole the fighting in the Balkans is thus seen to be going against the enemy. It is certain that by this time urgent calls are being sent in to the German general staff for more shells, more guns and more men for this theatre of the war. But as the Russians are becoming dangerous again in the fighting before Lemberg, the only theatre left to the German higher command to secure reinforcements is the western theatre of the war. Owing to Boy Struck By Motorcycle the virtual suspension of the fighting in Picardy by reason of the heavy rains the Germans will be sorely tempted to gamble on the possibilities against further offensive operations in the autumn on the odd chance of it being a rainy season, and further to weaken their position in the west by subtracting some more divisions from the number stationed before the British and the French.

* * * * *

On the Russian front the heavy battle forced on the enemy in the Brzezany region, in southeastern Galicia, is still raging with the utmost violence. The Russians, it is said, have approached near Brzezany and they are bombarding Russians, it is said, have approached near Brzezany and they are bombarding the Western Hospital in a passing this town. It appears that they have captured a considerable portion of the enemy's defensive position of the line of their march, but by this time the motor car. Dodds is held by the police foe has probably thrown up chains of trenches miles deep and difficult to force and a sto the lad's condition. under unfavorable road conditions. * * *

Owing to the continued rains little was done on the western battlefield in Picardy by the Anglo-French armies yesterday beyond the usual intense artillery shelling. The British ousted the enemy from part of Eaucourt L'Abbaye in the previous night. They also beat off an attempt of a hostile bombing force against a point half way between Eaucourt L'Abbaye and Gueudecourt. Twenty-one prisoners were taken in this area. On the French side of the battlefield, except a small infantry advance east of Morval, nothing happened outside of the usual dulness of a rainy day. In the preceding night the French captured a strongly fortified line of German trenches between Morval and St. Pierre Vaast Wood.

* * The Italians were engaged in some lively fighting as a result of Austrian attempts in the Travignolo-Avisio Valley. These hostile blows were all parried by the excellence of the Italian artillery and machine gun fire. On the northern slopes of Col Bricon the Italians captured some ground in the direction of Col Bricon Piccoli. Austrian batteries have been notably active in the Gorizia zone and on the Carso Plateau. * * *

Lord Derby is satisfied with the progress of the western campaign, ac cording to a Canadian Press interviewer. Only good weather is now needed to show substantial progress. He remarked that one of the most striking features of the present phase of the war was the notable decline in the ac ouracy of the German official communications. They are now evidently writfor home and neutral consumption; they are notoriously false in what they relate, and they are ikingly significant in what they minimize or conceal. Zeppelins, he says, will continue to attack London, in spite of recent losses and the vast improvement wrought in the air defences of the capital, for the German people have been taught taht zeppelins, like submarines, can bring England to her knees.
