GERMAN ASSEMBLY LIKE BEAR GARDEN

Independents Are Threatened With Court Martial by Minister of Interior.

Berlin, Jan. 30.—There were stormy scenes in the national assembly today during the discussion of the independents' proposal to abolish the state of siege, the different factions trying to howl each other down. Dr. Heine, Prussian minister of the interior, urg-ed continuance of the public safety precautions. He threatened the Inde-pendent leaders with courtmartial, shouting "You are joking at the risk of your lives." Herr Oeser, Prussian minister of railways, stated that as a result of th railway strike 47 per cent. of the country's locomotives were useless. During the debate the reichstag build-ing was barricaded, as it was feared the railroad strikers would seek to gain admission by force.

BEATTY SAYS C.P.R. NOT BUYING EDMONTON ROAD

Calgary, Alta., Jan. 30.—The Cana-dian Pacific Railway does not want the Edmonton, Dunevegan and the British Columbia Railway, and has no intention of purchasing it from the McArthur interests, said President Beatty of the Canadian Pacific Rail-Beatty of the Canadian Pacific Rail-way, who stopped off here for a short time on his return from the Pacific coast, and on his way to Edmonton. The president said the capitalization of the northern road was too high and there were other features that made it undesirable for the Canadian Pacific Railway to consider the pur-chase. A Grand Prairie delegation was here to interview the president, and to suggest that the provincial govto suggest that the provincial gov-ernment foreclose on the road, and allow the Canadian Pacific Railway to purchase it.

REV. J. H. NIMMO DIES

Kingston, Jan. 30.-(Special.)-Rev. Dr. John H. Nimmo, vicar of St. George's Church, Detroit, for many years a priest of the Ontario diocese, who held charges at Brockville and Barriefield, died in Detroit. The re-mains are being brought to Kingston for interment. H. M. Nimmo, editor of The Detroit Saturday Night, is a son.

STOLE BABY SHOES

Kitchener, Jan. 30. - (Special.) Altonener, Jan. 30. — (Special.) — Joseph Schmidt, an Austrian, was fined $20 in the police court this morning when he was found guilty of steal-ing a pair of infant's shoes from a local department store. The court was unable to figure out what the man wanted with the shoes, as he was not married.
