Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., March 3rd, 1870.

MR. J. T. SMITH.

DEAR SIR,—The Bradbury Piano, for which I sent my Square Grand Chickering in part pay and now enclose you my check for the balance, gives entire satisfaction.

Mrs. Grant wishes me to say that the Square Grand Bradbury Piano for which she exchanged in part payment her Steinway Piano, still gives the greatest satisfaction to her and her friends who perform upon it, in the parlor of the Executive Mansion. I have such great confidence in your celebrated Bradbury Pianos, and after having been performed upon and tested by some of the best Musicians of Washington, their opinion is an unqualified approbation of the Bradbury Piano, she has therefore requested me to order another of your celebrated Bradbury Pianos for the President's Cottage at Long Branch. I am very truly, O. E. BACON, Secretary to the President, and in charge of Public Works.

UNANIMOUS OPINION OF THEIR EXCELLENCE.

Ontario Bank, Bowmanville, Sept 10th, 1870.

Messrs. R. & H. O'HARA, Genl. Agents, Bowmanville.

DEAR SIRS,—The Piano purchased from you some six months ago, manufactured by Mr. F. G. Smith, New York (successor to W. B. Bradbury, the same firm), for whom you are general agents, is giving great satisfaction. It is in the opinion of many competent judges, a first class instrument.

As far as the workmanship is concerned, it is equal to the best that is being made, and is, in my opinion, superior to the instruments made by this firm, in richness and fullness of tone.

Yours, J. SIMPSON.
