

warm day and bad roads, and did not reach Hemmingford till about five o'clock, P. M. The meeting was held in the Wesleyan Chapel, Col. Sriver in the Chair. Rev. John Marlin opened with prayer, and I was then called upon to address the meeting. The officers were then appointed, and I again retired. The comforts afforded me last year in the house of Col. Sriver, were again liberally extended. Every house in this Township had been visited by females who had passed through every school district. Their efforts procured some sales, but they were more effectual in procuring subscriptions.

August 3rd. Looked over the Depository. Received £4 0s. 5½d., the amount of sales for the past year, and packed up some books to be returned to Montreal as they were not of a saleable sort.

On landing at Odeltown, was received by Mr. S. N. Smith with his accustomed kindness, and spent the afternoon attending to correspondence. Took tea with Rev. J. Brock, and repaired to the Wesleyan Chapel, the place of meeting. The Rev. Mr. Douglass also accompanied us. Mr. Brock prayed, and opened the meeting with a few appropriate remarks, and then called upon me, and after a few more remarks from Mr. Brock, the meeting closed under a good influence.

August 4th. My first business at Lacolle was with the Depository, Mr. Force paid me £2 5s. 7d., the amount of sales. A public meeting was held in the evening in the Episcopal Church, Rev. J. Brock, Vice President, in the Chair; the Rev. C. Morice being in Montreal. Thomas Gordon, Esq., the Secretary, read a very encouraging report, from which it appeared, that a great part of the field had been visited, and that little or no destitution existed.

Five companies of young Ladies had been appointed collectors, and over £15 had been raised by their exertions, and it was expected this sum would be augmented, as their labors were not complete; after I had addressed the meeting, the chairman spoke a short time, and concluded with prayer. I was kindly entertained by Thomas Gordon, Esq.

August 5. This morning I attended to correspondence and so on before I started for Clarenceville. Being detained some time at Lake Champlain before I could cross, I did not reach Clarenceville till the day was well advanced. My first business was with the Depository, he paid me £2 15s. 4d., the amount of sales. The anniversary was held in the Wesleyan Chapel, L. Simpson, Esq., in the Chair. After prayer, he called upon me to speak, and then the officers for the ensuing year were appointed, and the meeting was not well attended, but those present paid good attention, and the free contribution was liberal. Mr. G. D. Brainard cared for my wants, and the Rev. H Lanton much assisted the work.

August 6th. Feeling much unwell from the effects of a severe cold, I did not start till afternoon. On landing at Phillipsburgh, I repaired to the house of the Rev. E. Ingalls, who went with me to see the Depository, but we found him from home. We returned to the place of meeting. The gathering was small, some of the people being busy in their hay, and many being confined at home by sickness. Rev. Mr. Ingalls prayed, and I addressed the meeting upon the subject that had called us together, and went home with Mr. Morgan, a warm friend of the cause.

August 7th. Returned to the Depository and took an inventory of the Bibles and Testaments. Mr. Eaton paid me £5 on account; returning to dine with Mr. Morgan, and then continued my course to Pigeon-hill, where I took an inventory of the books in the Depository, and then returned a mile or two to see the Secretary, and obtained an account of the gratuitous distribution, and then returned again to the Depository to adjust the accounts. Retired to prepare for Sabbath.
