THE latest style of hand-organ has only one stop—it begins in the morning and stops at night.

A MAY who stakes his happiness on a maiden, as a matter of course, makes a miss-take.

It is never too late to mend. But a man need not expect to have a button sewed on much after midnight.

THE Prince of Wales is colonel to sixteen different regiments. This is not a circumstance to Florida; there they have sixteen colonels to every regiment.

POPE says that "beauty draws with a single hair." It doesn't nowadays. When beauty gets so bald-headed that she has but one hair left she doesn't draw much.

A SHAM-ROCK—the blarney-stone.

TWIN brothers may be eccentric but they are never odd.

SPEECH is not always silver. It is sometimes sounding brass.

It is the girl with the creamy complexion that is soonest taken for butter or worse.

PUT not your trust in money, but put your money in trust.

WHY should people never write secrets with a quill pen? Because it might split.

MISTRESS—"Mary, go into the sitting-room and tell me how the thermometer stands."

MARY (after investigating)—"It stands on the mantelpiece, just ag'in the wall ma'am!"
