A meeting of the local drug clerks was held yesterday morning, with the object in view of waiting on the proprietors with respect to the securing of shorter hours. Among the changes aimed at is the closing of drug stores at eight p. m. or the making of new arrangements which will permit the clerks to have a few evenings each a week to themselves.

Forest Hill, aged twenty-six, had his right arm amputated on Saturday afternoon at the General Public Hospital as a result of having the arm caught in the gear of a piece of machinery while working at the Atlantic Sugar Refinery.

An executive meeting of the Y. W. P. A. was held on Saturday evening at Harold Climo's studio. Many matters of interest were discussed, which will be brought before the general meeting.

Deacon Jones decided to speak his mind to the minister who was temporarily filling the pulpit. "I didn't like your prayer very much this morning," said he. "No," answered the minister, "and what was the matter with it?" Well, in the first place, it was too long; and aside from this, it contained two or three expressions which I thought were scarcely warranted. "I am sorry, deacon," the good man responded, "but it might be well to bear in mind that the prayer wasn't addressed to you."

HURRY! HURRY! HURRY!

Going Out of BUSINESS

Crowds have thronged this store all day Friday and Saturday since the hour of opening, intent on sharing astounding bargains, and still we have a great number of Boots and Shoes left at even Greater Bargains.

As we have to close out the business at once, we are therefore forced to sell our entire stock at almost your own prices.

If you appreciate the saving of your hard-earned dollars and want to get your full share of these bargains, you will have to hustle. Our time is limited, as other interests are demanding our time at once. We fully realize that only downright bargains will accomplish our object.

FIRST AID!

In case of severe toothache, rush your patent to one of our offices where instant relief may be obtained.

We do work painlessly and well.
