The corporation and the harbor board of Cork have passed a resolution sayone ing that, as the British high court in Ireland and the British ministry recognize the state of war existing, the executive would contravene civilized warfare and the dictates of common humanity. Copies of the resolution have been sent to the United States President and Pope Benedict. While the executions were proceeding a crowd knelt in the roadway outside the barracks, offering prayers and recited their rosaries. Moore's father, frantic with grief, and his brother, were in the crowd. Yesterday the relatives of the men visited them and found them in good spirits. It was the most closely contested game of the tournament until the Fredericton team wilted under the strain and blew up entirely in the third string, allowing the St. John team to breeze ahead and win as they pleased. Cecil Brewer, a youthful member of the Fredericton team, was leading the tournament bowlers last night with an average of practically 931-3 for eighteen strings. Brewer had rolled 1679, with Sandy Staples, captain of the Fredericton team, his nearest competitor, with 1659, closely pressed by Sullivan of Black's alley team, with 1647. The Fredericton and Black's Alleys teams were tied for the highest single string scored at the end of the second day's play, both having rolled 483 in	overcome with sorrow.
