Welcome To Our Easter Feast of Pictures, Music and Flowers!

MONDAY-TUESDAY FEATURE:

THAT $25 PRIZE CON-TEST OPENS ON MONDAY

The Particulars:

1—Motion Pictures of about twenty of our leading merchants will be thrown upon the screen Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the end of each show. These merchants will be shown with THEIR BACKS TO THE CAMERA.

2—Now, it is up to you to find out who they are, what their business is and write the answers on the slip of paper that will be provided you as you enter the door. This is the whole idea of the contest.

3—Hand in your slips to the Imperial as soon as completed, for the First Correct List of Names, etc., will be adjudged the winner. All answers will be marked as to the time of filing them, so there will be no flukes.

4—On Thursday, Friday and Saturday the merchants in the pictures will be shown front-face standing near their places of business. This will give contestants an idea how close their answers were. On Saturday night, April 10th (Intermission) the winner will be announced.

Spring Changes.

Easter patrons will find our theatre in pretty nice condition for the spring and summer run. The front display windows have been freshly curtained and draped, carpeted and decorated. The color scheme is black, white and cloth of gold. Yellow roses give a relieving touch.

The lobby and vestibule plate glass doors are resplendent in ecru sash curtains, caught up with flow-creed spring ribbons. The reverse sides are deep rose—to shut out the daylight. Our artist, Mr. Stringer, has made his advertising decorative scheme correspond with the fabric trappings very prettily.

The Stage Setting for this season is a distinct departure—named "A Venetian Piazza." It is the work of Frederick W. Stringer and gives the patron in the seat a charming vista of the canal city with its temples, gondolas, mooring posts and picturesque skyline. A realistic moonlight effect heightens the artistic value of the setting and real flowers and foliage give forth a fragrance.
