At Carnarvon, Wales, to-day, during the carriage of some packages of nitro glycerine from the quays, the material exploded, and both horses and men attending were blown to atoms. The railway station near the scene was torn to pieces, and a village a quarter of a mile distant was much damaged by the shock, which caused great consternation among the inhabitants. Four men were killed.

THE OCEAN BANK ROBBERY.—On the 12th inst., a man named Lewis R. Cole, an insurance company, rented a portion of an office in the basement of the Ocean National Bank in New York. The only piece of furniture he had besides a desk, was a large high case. Sunday noon the janitor of the bank found every thing safe but before Monday morning a hole was cut through from the basement to a back office of the bank by the burglars, who with a large quantity of the tools, which they left behind them, forced and blew open several safes, emptying them of their contents. Everything was found in confusion in the morning. The officers state that only about $20,000 in government bonds, belonging to the bank, have been stolen. The thieves left a bag containing $30,000 in gold in one of the safes, and over $120,000 in gold certificates, also Clearing House Exchanges for $30,000, untouched. The securities deposited in the bank by the customers, and about $20,000 in checks, were carried off.—There is said to be no clue to the burglars.—The amount of private deposits stolen is said by the banking officers not to exceed a quarter of a million dollars.

HENRY J. RAYMOND.—There is something troubling in the fact recorded by the N. Y. Sun that the very last completed article which the great journalist ever wrote was an affectionate eulogy on Mr. Seward. The two had been friends so long, they had sailed together through so much rough political weather, that we recognize a felicitous accident in the fact that the last labor of the younger friend was to vindicate the good name of the older, and to give him a hearty God speed.

Col. Whistly, chief detective of the Treasury Department has lately made arrests in Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York and several Western States of counterfeiters and counterfeit money, plates, presses, dies and other materials. About one dozen altogether have been arrested in the last six weeks in Indiana. A gang were arrested some days ago near Fort Wayne while engaged in making money and 400,000 counterfeit notes of twenty five cent currency were seized with twelve sets of steel plates, fifty sets dies, several presses and a lot of ink and other material.—[Portland Advertiser]

On Saturday evening last, a young man who gave his name as McLean, engaged a horse and wagon and driver from Mr. John Marshall, of this place, to drive him to Richmond Station. Mr. Marshall sent his son, a young lad as driver. Arrived at the Station, McLean asked the driver to let him have the team to drive round for a few minutes. The boy accordingly got out, and the passenger drove away, and did not return, although the driver waited until midnight for him. Mr. Marshall commenced a search in various directions after the missing horse and wagon, but heard nothing of either until Wednesday last, when he received a telegram from the Deputy Sheriff of Aroostook County, that the horse and wagon and the "borrower" thereof had been found, and the latter was in Houlton jail.—[Acadian]

THE EEL RIVER GOLD.—The topic of the week has been the discovery at Eel River Mills of a vein of Gold bearing quartz. The discovery was made by Mr. David R. Thomas, the owner of the land upon which the quartz crops out. The quartz is found on a bluff on the south side of Eel River about fifty rods from the stream, and not far from the mill of Messrs. McAdam, and the Railway Bridge across the River. Of the richness of the quartz which appears to the eye there can be little doubt; and should the vein prove upon inquiry to be extensive, the prospect of the discovery being valuable appears to be good.—These points, however, can be ascertained only by experiments which we hear, Mr. Thomas has caused to be commenced by a practical miner.—[Acadian]

The first demonstration on Western Extension took place yesterday, the Dominion day, when about 160 from Fredericton and St. John met at Hart's mill, and had a grand celebration not forgetting that important part, the luncheon. The St. John party, including His Worship the Mayor, and a number of the leading citizens, and Railway men, came by Steamer to Brimley's Point, and from thence all the way by Rail, being the first excursionists on a line destined to become the grand highway of traffic between this Province and the outer world. The celebration passed off in the most satisfactory manner. Sheriff Temple, President of the Fredericton Branch, John Pickard, Esq., our representative at Ottawa, Alexander Thompson, Esq., M. P. P., and a number of other gentlemen, represented Fredericton on this auspicious occasion.—Reporter

SAINT ANDREWS, JULY 7, 1869
Examination of the Parish School.

The examination of this School, taught by Mr. White, took place on Friday last, before the Trustees and a number of the parents and friends of the scholars. The school when taken by Mr. White, about ten months ago, was completely run down—indeed the pupils had gone to other schools, and he commenced teaching with hardly a corporal's guard in numbers; but ere many weeks had elapsed the number of scholars had increased far above the average, until last fall and winter, upwards of one hundred were on the list with an average daily attendance of 86, necessitating the engagement of an assistant, and indeed Mr. White was obliged to decline receiving any more scholars. The school is divided into two departments, male and female.

The pupils were examined in spelling, reading, grammar, geography, history and arithmetic; in each of which branches they acquitted themselves very creditably, and were highly commended by the examiners for their ready and correct answers. Their specimens of penmanship were also highly creditable. The examination was principally conducted by J. R. Bradford, Esq., Senior trustee, who complimented the scholars on the very great improvement they had made since the winter examination—and Mr. White on his assiduity and success as a teacher, to all of which we can bear testimony. It was intimated that prizes would be given to the best scholars at the next examination. Owing to the length of time occupied in the examination of the English classes the Latin classes were not examined. The school is now closed for the holidays, and will re-open on the first Monday in August.

The July number of the NEW DOMINION MONTHLY has been received. It is printed with new type and a new and elaborate cover has been substituted in place of the former one. The contents of this number, principally original, are entertaining and instructive.—Price $1 per annum, John Dougall & Son, publishers, Montreal.

From an advertisement in this days issue, it will be seen, that the up passenger train from St. Andrews will connect with the passenger train from St. Stephens; and the down passenger train from Woodstock will connect with the St. Andrews train on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays.

Stone & Murray's Circus is to exhibit here on Friday the 16th inst. The performances are highly praised, and in the American papers, and some of the English journals, praise the feats of one of the performers John Henry Cooke. The "Jersey City Standard" says:—Stone & Murray's Circus has created a genuine sensation in this city. The performance last night were extremely interesting from beginning to end, and elicited enthusiastic applause from hands with hearts in them.

The Synod of the Church of Scotland, met at Chatham, on Wednesday last. Rev. Dr.

Donald was chosen Moderator for the ensuing year. The Rev. P. Key, who was absent from here last week attending the Synod is expected home this week.

LECTURE.—On Friday evening last, D. B. White, Esq., delivered a lecture on "Education" in the Parish School house. The attendance was not as large as the subject should have commanded. The popular and able manner in which it was treated, was instructive and interesting to those present.

The lecturer showed that the means of study in this country, are abundant and accessible to persons of every condition—and that by well directed industry they have it in their power so to cultivate their minds, that they may be able to comprehend the sum total of human attainments—that there is no royal road to learning—nor can knowledge be transmitted from parent to child, and that it is something that every one must gain for himself. He pointed to living examples of those, who by their own vigour have raised themselves from the humblest ranks. We do not presume to give even an outline of the instructive and interesting lecture at present, as we understand that a general desire has been expressed that Mr. White may favor the public by repeating it on an early occasion. At the conclusion of the lecture, a vote of thanks was moved to Mr. White, which was ably seconded by the Rev. Mr. Partridge in a neat speech, and passed by acclamation. We can assure those who were not present that they missed a rich treat.

Dominion Day passed off quietly here—Flags were flying at the public buildings and on the shipping, but with the exception of the public office business was carried on as usual.

Halifax has declined the honor of the approaching Dominion Rifle Competitions which are consequently to be held at Toronto.

The International Steamers now ply three times week between Boston and St. John.—The Belle Brown runs daily between Boston and St. John, calling at St. Andrews.

The weather on Saturday and Sunday was warm, but not uncomfortably so.

Livingston's Hand Book and Visitors Guide to Saint John, with an account of Fredericton and the St. John River, has been received: it is just what was required and meets with favor from the public. It is also a good advertising medium.

Capt. Harry Moody and family are on a visit here for a short time. We understand several other families intend coming to St. Andrews this summer, to enjoy the pure air and sea bathing.

THE RAILWAY TAX.

MR. EDITOR.—It appears there is some diversity of opinion with reference to the proposed tax of $10,000 for the purchase of new rails, to repair this end of the Railway. There should be none, after the explanations made at the public meeting on the 1st March last. The Receiver of the Railway Mr. Henry Osburn gave a lucid statement of facts. Among other things he said there was "17 miles of track between St. Andrews and the St. Stephen junction requiring new rails; if $10,000 worth of new iron was laid, with the proceeds of the old rails liberated also expended in new rails, it would replace nearly 4 miles of new rails the line could be run for two or three more years." He also said that "the wished the meeting to understand distinctly, he could give no promise or guarantee to continue running this end even if the rails were found." Now what are the people to do? Just this—vote to tax themselves and give no cause why the trains should be stopped. This is the opinion of one who opposed, but is now in favor of the measure.
Yours,
J. W. 1869.

REWARDS OF MERIT.—We trust the intelligence communicated by telegram from Montreal to the effect that Her Majesty has created Messrs. Rose and Galt knights of the Order of St. Michael and St. George is accurate. They are both eminent men. Mr. Rose has in various ways distinguished himself most honorably since he entered the Privy Council. He has the broad and comprehensive modes of thinking which distinguish the statesman from the demagogue and pettifogger.

Mr. Galt is also a very able man, and has served his country well in high positions. He rendered excellent service both to the Empire and the Dominion by his speeches on the responsibility of the United States for the Fenian raids made from its territory by American citizens into the British Provinces, and on the manner in which the Canadian Government discharged the duties of a friendly neighbor to the United States during the continuance of the civil war.—Daily News.

PRESENTATION.—On Friday evening the members and friends of Battery No. 2, St. John Volunteer Artillery, to the number of forty, supped at Stubbs Hotel. Mr. McIntosh provided a very handsome table, to the "spread" upon which the company did ample justice. After the solids were disposed of, Lt.

Col. B. L. Peters, Captain of the Battery, was presented with a very handsome Silver Cup, upon which is engraved the arms of the Peters family, with the motto "Sais Dieu rein," and the following inscription:—"Presented to Captain BENJAMIN LESTER PETERS, by the officers, non commissioned officers and gunners of late No. 2 Battery, New Brunswick Regiment of Artillery of St. John, N. B., March 1869."

THE EEL RIVER GOLD DISCOVERIES are likely to prove of no account. We were this morning shown a telegram from a most reliable gentleman in Woodstock who had visited the ground, and who is conversant with gold mining, sent to a friend in this city in reply to an inquiry. It was as follows—Do not come up. Investigations unsatisfactory. Circumstances suspicious.—Globe.

The Synod of the Episcopal Church has been in session in this City during the present week, and also the Diocesan Church Society. Three colored children, aged respectively 5, 8, and 11 years, were drowned in the Kalamazoo River, at Allegan, Mich., recently, by their step-mother, who was jealous of them.
