Prosecution

Feb.

First witness: Major John H. Lacombe of Q.M. Corps, U.S. Army, after being duly sworn states - I was on my way 14 Jul 45. I was driving as patrol officer in Philippine 110 - making my rounds on Route 110 near there were a number of soldiers in the street throwing rocks and very dirty was driving them by going over the side of road. We came to an intersection where another soldier was waving his arms - my driver thinking it was another batch biker, pulled to left hand side of the road to go around him. The soldier started cursing at occupants of the vehicle - I identified the soldier as Rufe Goodie. He accused me of being my driver & stop - I dismounted and went back and talked to the soldier. Rufe Goodie started cursing me - I interrupted him and informed him that he was talking to a Major of U.S. Army his wife & that was I don't give a fuck if you are. You Americans are all bastards. I then asked for his name and name. His shirt was open and his identity disc was plainly visible. He showed me the disc and I took the number. I walked to the car and wrote the no down on a piece of paper. I then asked him for his name which he refused to give stating that he didn't have to give his name to any God damned American. I then mounted my vehicle, ordered the driver to proceed to American MP station. The vehicle started. Rufe Goodie started at me and threw my cap off of
