LIFE IN GERMANY NOT SO BAD, SAYS SGT. CHAS. RIGBY

The main body of the Canadian army will very shortly be returning iome, according to Sergt. Chas. F Rigby, of this city, in a letter aded to a friend, E. Henderson, of the confederation Life Assurance company. Sergt. Rigby also states that conditions in Germany are not so bad as some people have imagined.

Sergt. Rigby left the city for verseas service with the 28th Battalion in 1915. He was well known round the city, having prior to enlistment been employed in the down town ticket office of the C.P.R. "I am sending you these few lines to let you know that I am on my final leave at my home in reland prior to getting ready to be sent back to Canada with the main Canadian army which will be very soon now," says Sergt. Rigby
