22ND ANNIVERSARY.

Of Carmarthen Street Methodist Church—Rev. J. J. Teasdale Preached in Evening.

The celebration of the 22nd anniversary
church began yesterday. At the morning service yesterday, at which Rev.
G. M. Campbell preached, Treasurer Hutchins read the financial statement for the year, showing the present debt on the church to be $2,400, and on the parsonage $1,600. The property is worth about $10,000. The expenses during the past year had been $340, to meet which $240 had been contributed, leaving a deficit of about $100. In addition to this there were other expenses to be met of about $100. Of the century fund contribution, $252.17 had gone toward paying the debt on the parsonage. A special appeal was made for funds to make possible the much needed renovation of the interior of the church. In the afternoon a Sunday school rally service was held and in the evening Rev. J. J. Teasdale preached. This evening Rev. G. M. Campbell will lecture in the church on Heritage and Responsibility, tomorrow evening a congregational reunion will be held, and Wednesday evening the Epworth League will hold a special missionary service.

At last evening's service Rev. J. J.
Teasdale's text was: "But upon Mount Eliab he beheld a chariot and there was a horse, and Jacob shall possess his possession."

its loftiest forms and is identified with that community of people called the "Church of the Living God," which is symbolized by Zion: "Beautiful for situation and the joy of the whole earth." Rev. Mr. Teasdale dealt with the power of God, as manifest in deliverance from sin and its consequences. The terrible power of sin was set forth in clear and strong terms, and in contrast the greater power which in Christ wrought deliverance.
The speaker next dwelt upon solitude, which is the result of deliverance, and in which even the common duties and things of life are made sacred.
The possessions which are the right of those freed from sin were next described, concluding a sermon of great force and eloquence.

SIBILLA TONIGHT.

The grand musical spectacular production Sibilla, which has been under rehearsal for several weeks, will receive its initial presentation at the Opera House this evening. The Royal Kennebec Yacht Club, under whose auspices Sibilla is being given, have decorated the auditorium and the approaches thereto with much taste.
Owing to the length of the performance, the curtain will go up at ten minutes to eight tonight on the prologue, and the people who want to see the full show, or have any consideration for the feelings of those who do will be in their seats at a quarter to eight.

A novel entertainment will be held in the Brunswick street Baptist church next Monday and Tuesday evenings.

A TRAGIC MYSTERY.

Looks Like an Attempt to Defraud Life Insurance Company Out of $4,000.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 11.—That the corpse sent here from Jefferson Ind., as that of Newell Crathun, of this city, U. S. recruiting officer here, who was reported to have died in a Jefferson hotel a few days ago, is not the body of Crathun, is asserted by Sam. M. Powell, state manager of a life insurance company. The body was to have been buried in Oakland Sunday afternoon. In his statement the insurance officer is supported by Dr. C.
Jennings, the company's examining physician, B. P. Sisk, who placed one half of the life insurance on Crathun, and by Mrs. J. C. Watkins, of the Grand Central hotel, with whom Crathun boarded to the time of his marriage a short time since, and by others.
Mr. Powell requested the undertaker to postpone the funeral until Monday afternoon and last night purchased information of his alleged discovery in Crathun's room. Mr.
Powell made the following statement:
"Newell Crathun called at my office and asked for $2,000 ordinary life insurance. This, while it sometimes occurs, is unusual, but he struck me as a fine risk and my questions developed that he was the U. S. Army recruiting officer of this city and was soon to be married. I had him examined by a doctor and passed all right. I regarded him as an excellent risk. A few days later he called again at my office, but I was absent, and my office man, B. P. Sisk, wrote him $2,000 additional.
When I read in the press the notice of his sudden death at Jeffersonville, Ind., I was more than astonished and determined to have an autopsy." JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Nov. 11.— The following facts have been ascertained regarding the case of Newell C.
Crathun, the U. S. recruiting officer, whose alleged sudden and mysterious death has been investigated by life insurance inspectors at Little Rock, Ark. men who registered as William Ten Eyke, of Watertown, N. Y., and Newell C. Crathun, entered their names at a hotel last Wednesday night.
On Thursday the man who registered as Crathun was found dead in his bed.
The coroner says that the post mortem examination showed laudanum in the man's stomach sufficient to have killed two men. The verdict of the coroner's jury, it is said, will be that death was caused by morphine poisoning. The man who registered as Ten Eyke had left the hotel when the dead body of the other man was found. A letter was received Saturday by Deputy Coroner Coots from Ten Eyke. He wrote on plain paper and failed to give his address in Louisville, from which city the letter is supposed to have been written. Ten Eyke said he had met Crathun in Little Rock and had been respected by him. Meetings were held in Louisville and seeing that Crathun was in distress, he took him to Jeffersonville, gave him a coat and vest, paid his hotel bill and on Wednesday night accompanied him to Louisville and the two "had time."

The supposed Crathun was helplessly intoxicated, it is said, when he returned to the hotel Wednesday night.
Deputy Coroner Coots wants to find Ten Eyke, but he has been unable to do so. The man who registered as Crathun and seeing that Crathun was in distress, he took him to Jefferson-

ENGLAND AND AMERICA.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The Pall Mall Gazette, this afternoon, referring to the speech made by Senator Lodge at Boston on Saturday last, says: "It is believed, Mr. Lodge's speech reveals the mind of President Roosevelt, this country will have nothing to complain of. The isthmian question will be settled next year in a manner honorable and satisfactory to both countries, which means, we presume, that America will get her own way in the matter.
The Monroe doctrine is to be sternly upheld by a great many, if need be.
This is in the interests of peace. As the Monroe doctrine does not affect that part of the American continent which belongs to the British empire, the announcement will cause no friction."

HONORS FOR SANTOS-DUMONT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—A despatch from Paris to the New York Times says M. Santos Dumont has received a check for 100, 000 francs, from the Marquis de Dion, on behalf of the Aero club.
NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—A despatch to the Herald from Paris says: "The municipal council of St. Cloud has decided to give the name of Santos Dumont to a street leading to the Balloon park in St. Cloud."

R. L. BORDEN.

TORONTO, Nov. 11.—R. L. Borden, M. P. of Halifax, arrived in the city yesterday for the purpose of being present at the meeting of the second ward Conservative Association tonight.
While in the city Mr. Borden is the guest of A. H. Kemp, M. P.

THE DEATH ROLL.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The death is announced of Sir Franklin Leveson-Gower, chief police magistrate for London. He was born in 1821.
TORONTO, Nov. 11.—Fair and cold today; Tuesday, strong winds and moderate rains, south-westerly, southerly, unsettled, milder or showery.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Forecast—Eastern and Northern New York —Unsettled weather tonight and Tuesday; probably rain, warmer tonight; variable winds, becoming southerly and brisk.

NEW DYNAMITE GUN.

That Will Throw 500 Pounds of Nitro-Gelatin 30,000 Yards.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Highly successful tests of a new dynamite gun of destructive powers in excess of any weapon hitherto designed have just been privately conducted by a special board of officers of the bureau of ornance, of the United States army at Fisher's Island. The government has for several years been engaged in the erection on Fisher's Island of fortifications on a colossal scale, intended to make the eastern entrance to the sound impregnable to naval attack and secure the safety of all the cities along the sound from New London to New York. In this system of defense the new dynamite gun, which is mounted so as to cover the channel between Fisher's Island and Plum Island, on which heavy batteries have already been erected, is expected to play an important part.
It is of the same pneumatic type as the gun of the battery now in possession at Sandy Hook and San Francisco, being forty feet long, with a calibre of fifteen inches, but embodied many new features, including rapidity of action and accuracy of fire. A new type of fuse has also been supplied, which accuses absolute precision of explosion of the shells both on impact and by delay action. The tests were made before a board consisting of Majors McNeill and Birney of the bureau of ordnance and many artillery officers from the forts in the vicinity. With the full calibre projectile the gun proved its ability to hurl 500 pounds of nitrogelatin, said to be sufficient to annihilate any battleship at a distance of about 30,000 yards, with a degree of accuracy not excelled by the latest types of heavy rifle in the ordnance.
The tests were devoted to the tests.
The first shot was hurled a distance of 5,763 yards, bursting on impact with the water and sending a column of water 300 feet into the air. With a ten inch shell, carrying 300 pounds of explosive, the extreme range was found to be 5,460 yards, the shell exploding under water with the desired delay action of two seconds. In the test for accuracy five eight-inch shells were dropped at the respective ranges of 5,043, 5,025, 5,020, 5,040 and 4,970 yards, all of which have taken effect, assuming that the target had been a battleship about three miles away, or about double the distance of 2,500 yards, now generally accepted as the limit of a practical fighting range. In the test for rapidity of fire, five shells weighing 1,085 pounds, or more than half a ton each, were discharged in eleven minutes and fifty-five seconds, almost bringing the weapon within the class of rapid fire pieces.
A companion gun has just been received in the specifications at Hardison Heights, defending the naval station at Port Royal, S. C., and will be tested by the same board within a few days.

SOUTH AFRICA.

QUERRET, Nov. 10.—It is apparent now that it is not the intention of the government to send another contin-gent to South Africa. Lelelli on Saturday stated that just as it was going to press it received a telegram from Ottawa saying no contingent would be sent. Moreover, Lelelli stated it has been asked to give as much publicity as possible to the fact that no Canadian officer or soldier would be granted leave of absence for the purpose of going to South Africa, and that this announcement was made for the purpose of stopping applications to the minister of militia for this permission, no less than sixty having applied on Friday.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—In a letter dated Oct. 23, the Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail says:
"Lord Kitchener and Sir John Gordon Sprigg (the Cape Town premier) have arranged a scheme for the expulsion of the invaders from Cape Colony.
A joint commission of the imperial and colonial military conferences has been sitting here for some days past to draft a scheme.
It is understood that this provides for the colony taking a large share in the future of the campaign and contributing largely to its cost. Apparently a levy of loyalists, en masse, is the idea involved."

LONDON, Nov. 11.—According to the Daily News, Major General Ian Hamilton, who sailed Saturday for South Africa to act as Lord Kitch-ener's chief of staff, takes a plan prepared in London for a more vigorous campaign with a view of ending the war before the coronation festivities begin.
"General Hamilton's appointment," says the Daily News, "is part of a plan arranged after the King's return from the continent about six weeks ago. Unless Lord Kitchener should decline to be complaisant, the new scheme is likely to develop about the beginning of the year."

PREDERICKTON BOY IN THE NORTHWEST.

Arthur G. Harrison, B. A., of the University of New Brunswick, and a graduate of the Engineering school, and son of Chancellor Harrison, has received official notice from Ottawa of his appointment as agent of Dominion lands at Edmonton, Alberta, at a salary of twelve hundred dollars, duties to begin January 1st, says the Glenora.
The appointment is similar to a deputy in the Crown Lands department here. Preparatory to this responsible post he was made Homestead Inspector for Northern Alberta, and in that capacity is about completing a tour over that wide and fertile district.

In a new church at Fairview, Ky., a marble tablet set in the wall has this inscription: "Jefferson Davis, of Mississippi, was born, June 3, 1808, on the site of this church, and died a slave of the lot, March 10th, 1860, to Bethel Baptist church, as a thank offering to God."

TWO DESPERATE MEN.

By a Clever Ruse Capture Sheriff and Deputy and Hold a Police Force at Bay.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 10.—Sheriff Cook and Deputy Sheriff Williams, of this county, were captured by two escaped convicts from the Fort Leavenworth military prison this afternoon at Pauline, five miles south of Topeka, and held prisoner in the farm house of a man named Wooster for several hours. The convicts finally escaped between a line of police sent from Topeka to reinforce the sheriff and arrow at large. Both were slightly wounded.
The convicts had fled through a small opening in the timber and ran into the house of Farmer Wooster. Sheriff Cook telephoned to Topeka for assistance and then took up the chase. Thinking the convicts had run around the house, Cook started through the open door, intending to surprise them at the rear door. But instead of this the convicts had gone into the house and the officer almost fell into their arms. Sheriff Cook was ordered to give up his gun, which he did. Deputy Williams by the time had reached the house and entered without knowing what had happened inside, and he, too, was made captive by the convicts.
In the meantime, Chief Stahl, of Topeka, and eight officers were on their way. They arrived at the Wooster house about an hour after the officers had been imprisoned. Chief Stahl immediately began negotiations with the convicts to give up their prisoners and surrender themselves, but the convicts only laughed. Farmer Wooster then managed to get a gun and was about to make an attack on the convicts, when one of them laid him low with a blow from the butt of a revolver taken from one of their captives.
The convict broke Wooster's right hand and made an ugly gash in his head.
One of the convicts told Sheriff Cook that he would be killed if he made the slightest move looking toward their prisoners. In the meantime the police officers on the outside had surrounded the building, but were afraid to make a move for fear Cook and Williams would suffer.

Mrs. Wooster had fainted during the scotmen. She finally revived and at 7 o'clock the convicts placed the woman and Sheriff Cook in front of them as shields and made for the door. Then, after exacting a promise from the sheriff that they would not permit any of the officers outside to fire upon them, they started for the open. As they left the house the frightened farmer, his wife and the submissive sheriff before them, the convicts passed between a cordon of police who easily could have captured them, and escaped for the railway track. The sheriff, in turn, had exacted a promise from the police that they would not molest the convicts and they did not.
After covering a considerable distance down the track the convicts suddenly disappeared through a hedge fence, bidding the officers a mocking farewell. One of the police sergeants later said he could have easily caught the leading convict with his hand as he passed.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 11.—Warden McClaughey, of the Fort Leavenworth military prison, reported by telephone this morning that Lawrence Lewis, white, the 13th of the escaped convicts to be taken, has been arrested at Loman, Kansas. The others in addition to the couple that yesterday made a captive of Sheriff Cook are said to have been wounded in a fight with officers between Topeka and Leavenworth, and officers were reported to have had a fight with convicts near Alma, some time last night.

MISS EMMA H. KING

Takes Her Life in Her Hand in the Interests of Science.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—A young woman has just been inoculated with virus from a cow suffering from tuberculosis by Dr. George D. Barney of Third street, Brooklyn. The solution of bovine tubercle bacilli was injected on each side of the woman's neck just above the clavicle, the quantity of the injection being about one and one half drachms.
The woman was Miss Emma H. King of Brooklyn. She offered to submit to the experiment, it was said, in order that the medical profession might know whether or not Dr. Koch's theory that bovine tubercle cannot infect human beings was correct. The cow from which the virus was taken was inoculated with virus of a consumptive person some time ago by Dr. Barney. Dr.
Barney said he was also anxious to prove that persons suffering from consumption in its early stages can be cured by the inhalation of a compound of the phenol group. Should Miss King be stricken with consumption as a result of the experiment, she will undergo the inhalation treatment.

MONTREAL GAMBLERS RAIDED.

MONTREAL, Nov. 10.—The police early this morning raided three of the most prominent gambling houses in Montreal, Andy Maloney's Joe Pont's and the Belmont club. Fifty-one arrests were made, all being released on bail to appear in court on Monday morning. A large amount of gambling paraphernalia was also seized.

ANOTHER WIDOW.

Anastasia McNeill has been reported by the police for keeping liquor for sale in her beer shop on Sidney street.
A day or two ago Deputy Jennings, Detective Killen and Sgt. Blake visited Mrs. McNeill's shop and found there in addition to the beer on sale twenty-one bottles of ale and nineteen of liquor. This was all seized.
The case will be heard before the magistrate tomorrow morning.

THE IRISH ENVOYS.

The Irish Envoys, Redmond, Mc-Hugh and O'Donnell, addressed 600 people in the Mechanics' hall, Boston, last night. They explained that the object of the United Irish League was to secure the complete independence of the Irish nation and asked for the moral and material support of the Irish race in America, their descendants and the American people themselves. Resolutions endorsing the plan of the league were adopted and moral and financial support promised.
