POOR DOCUMENT

ST. JOHN STAR, TUESDAY, JUNE 7, 1904.

DYKEMAN'S.

STANDS TOP

Ladies' Tailor-made Suits at Extraordinary Prices

We have about Twenty-five Suits that must be cleared out within the next week or two. They are every one of them this season's make, are properly tailored and perfect fitting. The prices for this sale will be as follows:---$8.25, $9.50, $10.00, $12. $13.50 and $15.00. Even the lowest priced one is prettily silk trimmed, made from good cloths and the latest style. Sizes from 32 to 38 inches.

Our customers are, therefore, safe-guarded against unsatisfactory pur-chases of freak and peculiar styles Brown and Black Stiff Hats, also Soft Hats in all the fashionable shades. Children's Straw Hats and Caps.

95c. to $5.00 See our Boys' and Children's Headware

THORNE BROS., 93 KING STREET

"There once visited this Scottish The did champion of woman pedestrians, in the rushed to the rescue. The cable train ofessor a younger scientist. The visitor remained over inguity wisitor remained over inguity morning his host said to him: "'And how did ye sleep the nicht?'

"'Not very well,' the visitor answered. 'It was the strange bed, perhaps; but, he ventured, 'I must confess

"'Ah,' said the professor, encourag-ingly, 'ye were just bitten by some-thing, eh?' "Well, to tell you the truth, profes-"'Just think of that?' cried the pro-essor. 'Bitten, war ye? Noo, man, can ye say it was anything at all noteworth that bit ye?'
"Fleas, I think,' said the other.
"Fleas for biting I never met released. Then she fainted. The she But such fleas for biting I never met in my life before.'
"I should think so, indeed,' said the ofessor, in great glee. "They're ician fleas. I imported them my-sash Curtain Rods, 5c. to 10c. each.

LACE CURTAINS!

LADIES' COLLARS—Ladies' Lace Collars,
18c. to $1.00 each.
Ladies' Silk Collars, 22c. to 60c. each.
Ladies' Cotton Hose, 5c. pair up.
Ladies' Cashmere Hose, 25c. up.
New Set Sample Gloves in Lisle, Taffeta and Pure Silk.
New Belts, Ribbons and Shirt Waist Sets.

Arnold's Department Store 11 and 15 Charlotte St.

The Steamer "Maggie Miller" Will leave Millidgeville for Summerville, Kennebeccasis Island, and Bayswater, daily (except Saturday and Sunday) at 9 a. m. and 4 and 6 p. m. 4 and 6 p. m.

Returning from Bayswater at 7 and 9.45
a. m., and 4.45 p. m.

SATURDAY leaves Millidgeville at 6.45 and 9.80 a. m., and 3, 5 and 7 p. m.

Returning at 6, 7.30 and 10 a. m., and 3.45,

SUNDAY leaves Millidgeville at 9 and 10.30 a. m. and 7 p. m. Returning at 9.45 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Dr. A. H. Merrill, DENTIST, Cor. King and Charlotte Street Entrance: 75 Charlotte Street.

NEW DULSE!

'Phone 1631.

First of the Season, at CHAS. A. CLARK'S,

REGATTA NEW AND UP-TO-DATE

10c. each

SEE WINDOW. Cor. Duke and Charlotte Sts. Store Open Evenings.

LOCAL NEWS.

Celebrated Broad Cove coal, $7.00 per haldron delivered, at Watters', Walker's wharf. Tel. 612.

No. 4 I. C. R. shunter ran off the No. 1 Salvage Corps received today ten dollars from the A. Christie Woodworking Co., as an appreciation of line to the Star this morning that he hoped to have the branch

An adjourned meeting of the N. B.

Historical Society will be held in their rooms in the Market building this evening at eight o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

A special meeting of the Carpenters' Union wil be held at Berryman's Hall on Wednesday evening for the election of officers. All members are requested a number of new members will be

The Hamburg-American Line stmr.
Albano is due at Halifax from Antwerp. She has on board 709 immigrants, all for the Canadian Northwest. These immigrants will be sen west via St. John.

Richard Damery, caretaker of the Martello Tower, has this week begun to take advantage of the privilege re-cently extended him of charging visi-tors a small fee for admission to the tower and inspection of his fine collec-

IF THEY'RE FASHIONABLE, WE On Thursday night, while the steawater. She was in the schools for several hours. They seemed to be making up the bay.

> The officers of the Bricklayers' and Masons' Union were elected Monday night, as follows: Frederick McColnight, as follows: Frederick McCol-gan, president; Thomas Tracey, vice-president; John Barbery, Jr., record-ing secretary; Albert Reddick, finan-cial secretary; Walter Allingham, cor-

(New York Tribune).

Senator William A. Clark, a short time before he sailed for Europe, attended a dinner of scientists. In the course of this dinner the senator said: "Science is an admirable thing. In these latter days, indeed, it is a thing as interesting and marvellous as a fairy tale. I have only one fault to find with it. It imbues some of its votaries with too profound a zeal.

"I have in my mind when I say this a scientific zealot of Scotland—a professor whose special delight was insects and bugs.

"There once visited this Scottish professors of the sailed for Europe, attended a dinner of scientists. In the at La Salle and Washington street for handsome woman, stopped all traffic at La Salle and Washington street for when the other day. It was about 3 o'clock in the afternoon when she campe west on the south side of Washington street. She wore an an eutral floral tints predominated, and a picture hat, in which gay tones and neutral floral tints predominated, will be presented.

"I have in my mind when I say this a scientific zealot of Scotland—a professor whose special delight was insects and bugs.

"There once visited this Scottish professor of the past winter will be presented."

"The prizes awarded to scholars of the public schools for the best essay in the elementary course of the past winter will be presented.

"The prizes awarded to scholars of the public schools for the best essay in the elementary course of the public schools for the best essay in the elementary course of the public schools for the best essay in the elementary course of the public schools for the best essay in the elementary course of the public schools for the best essay in the elementary course of the public schools for the best essay in the elementary course of the public schools for the best essay in the elementary course of the public schools for the best essay in the elementary course of the public schools for the best essay in the elementary course of the public schools for the best essay in the elementary course of the

"I can't," said the woman. "My shoe is stuck."

And so it proved. The woman's French heel, nearly three inches of superimposed leather, was stuck firmly in the cable slot.

She tried to go, but it was no go.

Robert Ferris, who was recognized by the court as Robert Mattox, a man of the court as Robert Ferris, who was recognized by the court as Robert Mattox, a man of the court

Finally a big policeman pulled the victim out by placing his arm around Finally a big policeman pulled the victim out by placing his arm around her waist. The crowd yelled as she was released. Then she fainted. The shoe was left in the slot, and traffic was delayed until the shoe was released.

Pawning an engagement ring is a piedge of love.

The rule was granted returnable next arrested for using profane language on St. John street was called several times, but as he did not respond the deposit of eight dollars was forfeited. His honor asked if any present knew this man Kelly. No fictitious names should go on the street.

Shortly after eleven o'clock last night the fire department were called out in the fire department were called out in the victim out by placing his arm around her was ashamed of him. That was all.

The rule was granted returnable next Friday.

FALSE FIRE ALARM.

Folice Report the People Who were this man Kelly. No fictitious names should go on the street.

Shortly after eleven o'clock last night the fire department were called out in the victim out of the victim out by placing his arm around her was ashamed of him. That was all.

The rule was granted returnable next Friday.

FALSE FIRE ALARM.

Shortly after eleven o'clock last night the fire department were called out in the victim out of the victim out was left in the slot, and traffic was de-layed until the shoe was released.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS. (From the Chicago News.)

A keen critic is apt to make cutting too lazy to stop.

Strange to say, the world has never produced a deaf and dumb pugilist.
Reference books contain everything Reference books contain everything except the one thing you want to know.

A man never fully realizes his insignificance until he goes shorping with nificance until he goes shopping with his wife.

nis Sullivan have all been reported, charged with breaking the glass in a Any one can name the three graces, but the disgraces are too numerous to formation Occasionally a man declines a non ination for office—if there is no chance

Nothing worries a woman so much when starting on a visit as being unable to remember something she has

MERRIMAC HERO BURIED.

The funeral of Geo. F. Phillips, who The funeral of Geo. F. Philips, who died at Cambridgeport, Mass., on Saturday last took place this afternoon from the residence of C. A. Rutherford, 116 Carmarthen street. Rev. G. M. Campbell officiated and interment was in Fernhill cemetery.

The St. John schooners Clayola and Viola have been chartered to load sulphur at New York for this point.

The St. John schooners Clayola and Viola have been chartered to load sulphur at New York for this point.

The St. John schooners Clayola and Viola have been chartered to load sulphur at New York for this point.

The St. John schooners Clayola and Viola have been chartered to load sulphur at New York for this point.

The St. John schooners Clayola and Viola have been chartered to load sulphur at New York for this point.

The St. John schooners Clayola and Viola have been chartered to load sulphur at New York for this point.

The schooner Joseph Hay has been fixed to load lumber at Port Arthur, The Famous Hale Method,

The Famous Hale Metho

Street Railway People Will Probably Allow Sunday Refreshments in New Bay Shore Park.

No. 4 I. C. R. shunter ran off the track this morning near Mill street and was replaced without much trouble.

In about a fortnight the people of St. John will enjoy the privilege of taking a Sunday trip to the country in a trolley line to Bay Shore in operation in about

The marriage will take place at the cathedral tomorrow morning at an early hour, of Humphrey J. Sheehan to Miss McLaughlin, of Richmond street.

Then immediately arises the question of Sunday observance. It will be only on Sunday that citizens in any number will go to Bay Shore and the railway will be called upon to take them there. When asked if it was the ntention to run cars to Bay Shore on Sunday Manager Earle said most as-

Citizens, however, will not go to the in Yarmouth. shore unless they are promised a pleas-ant place where they can enjoy them-selves and where they may obtain what selves and where they may obtain what rfreshments they may desire. The street.

The Junior Christian Endeavour Society of the Carleton Free Baptist church will hold an entertainment in the vestry of the church on Wednesday evening of this week. An excellent programme has been prepared.

The Hamburg-American Line stmr. Albano is due at Halifax from Anti-

SEEKING JUSTICE FOR 20 YEARS.

Strange Story of John McKinney, of Lancaster - Held Unjustly in Asylum and Brutally Treated

Rev. H. A. Cody, who recently resigned the rectorship of the Greenwich Episcopal church, Kings county, arrived in the city yesterday on his way to the Yukon, where he will engage in missionary work for some years. Since leaving his pastorate he has been visiting his home at Cody's.

There was brought to the notice of the Star today a case of twenty years of fruitless seeking on the part of a much ill-used man for justice from the provincial authorities. Twenty years ago John McKinney, of Greenwich, Lancaster, was confined in the Provincial Lunatic Asylum for eleven months, for a reason which he has been unable of the Star today a case of twenty years after the Star today a case of twenty years of truitless seeking on the part of a much ill-used man for justice from the provincial authorities. Twenty years ago John McKinney, of Greenwich, Lancaster, was confined in the Provincial Lunatic Asylum for eleven months, for a reason which he has been unable of the Champlain Tablet Fund. The tablet is now nearly completed. One line of this inscription reads "erected by the people of New Brunswick." The treasurer would like to hear from "the people" and record the reason which he has been unable of the Star today as case of twenty years after the star today as case of twenty years are ceived in aid of the Champlain Tablet Fund. The tablet is now nearly completed. One line of this inscription reads "erected by the people of New Brunswick." The treasurer would like to hear from "the people" and record the provincial authorities. Twenty years ago John McKinney, of Greenwich, Lancaster, was confined in the Provincial Lunatic Asylum for eleven months, for a reason which he has been unable wich Episcopal church, Kings county, arrived in the city yesterday on his way to the Yukon, where he will engage in missionary work for some years. Since leaving his pastorate he has been visiting his home at Cody's.

On Thursday night, while the steamer Senlac was crossing the bay between St. John and Yarmouth, she passed through immense schools of herring or other school fish, which were so dense that they were turned aside by the ship's bow like so much water. She was in the schools for secold and went to Dr. Steeves, then superintendent of the asylum, for a prescription. His cold may have Dowling Bros. caused him to act a little queer. At all events, once in the asylum he was not allowed out for eleven months.

He says that while in the asylum he

G. U. I was subjected to violent and inhuman treatment at the hands of the keepers. He was kicked about and bruised as though he were a brute. During his incarceration his family had to shift for themselves as best they could. Mr. McKinney thinks he is entitled to substantial damages. SUPREME COURT.

Session Opened Today - Frank McGuire Appeals from the Sentence Passed by Judge Forbes.

the middle of La Salle street she threw up ner gloved hands and shrieked. A south-bound cable car was bearing full upon her. Policeman Gorley, the splendid champion of woman pedestrians, rushed to the rescue. The cable train was stopped. So was the woman. "Why don't you get out of the way?" of the police court this morning and the dose prescribed was four dollars or the dose prescribed was four dollars (Special to the Star.)

the cable slot.

She tried to go, but it was no go.

Train after train from the tunnel stopped. Gongs clanged and blue-uniformed crews assembled.

Finally a big policeman pulled the stopped and blue-uniformed crews assembled to go.

To one of the drunks who was introduced in the grave of one of the loyalists his honer said he was ashamed of him.

The rule was granted returnable next that the prisoner had failed to testify in his own defence.

The rule was granted returnable next the final guds of the St. Luke's Base-brokes and the jury of St. John country, May 27th, on the ground that the trial judge in his charge to jury commented on fact that the prisoner had failed to testify in his own defence.

The rule was granted returnable next the prisoner had failed to testify in his own defence. The rule was granted returnable next Shortly after eleven o'clock last night the fire department were called out in consequence of an alarm from box eight, a box that has been pulled quite freely of late. When they arrived on the scene they could not discover any the scene they could not discover any the and went back to the stations in the scene they could not discover any the scene they could not discover any the stations in the scene they could not discover any the scene they cou should go on the street.

Patrick Jennings, who was reported for not having a light on a pile of stone used by him in some building operations on Pond street on the night of June 2nd and 3rd, explained that the teamster who hauled the stone did not think a light necessary as an electric street lamp was but a few feet away. He was warned and allowed to dashed into the Grand Union Hotel, crying "Fire." Saying in breathless haste that it was "at the same place," she hurried out. Dennis Sullivan, of the hotel employ, pulled the hook. The police started to look for the woman, and about half-past twelve Sergt. Campbell and Officer Sullivan learned that Mrs. Mary Ann Terris was the party they wanted. She said that she saw a light in some hay which re-fire alarm box and sending in false in-The case may come up tomorrow. POLICE REPORTS.

A wise man does a great deal of silent thinking and a fool man does a great deal of thoughtless talking.

Nothing worries a woman Last night the police found the doors lan was making. Dennis Burke has been reported by the police for carrying on the business of an auctioneer on Monday, June 6th, without a license. NEW CHARTERS. The St. John schooners Clayola and

PERSONALS.

* Mrs. William E. Neve will receiv her friends on Wednesday and Thurs day afternoon and evening, June 8th and 9th, at 272 King street east. Father O'Neill of St. Joseph's University, arrived in the city last even-ing. He is on book-buying business. The marriage will take place on June 13th of Fred H. Tippet and Miss Edith Little of this city. The ceremony will be a quiet one and will be performed at the home of the bride, Waterloo The marriage of Miss Jennie A

Trueman, leading soprano of Centen-ary church, to C. Allison Hallett, will take place at that church on Wednes day morning at 10.30. Mrs. J. G. Shewan and family return of officers. All members are requested to attend.

Mrs. E. L. Field is visiting friends Mrs. Andrew Stevens (nee Kennedy)

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade will be held this afternoon, when ordinary routine business will be transacted. It is expected that a number of new members will be is in St. John attending the Presbyter-ian Canadian General Assembly, has attended every assembly that has taken place, with but one exception, when ill-ness prevented.—Halifax Mail. Mrs. Andrew Stevens will be please and Thursday afternoon and evening

CHAMPLAIN TABLET.

repairing the block pavement at Mar-ket square. A big section of the old pavement that had become to a certain extent dangerous has been torn up and new blocks are being put down, Another crew of men are at work making repairs to the plank walk at the head of Market Slip. This side-walk, that runs along the top of the retaining wall on which the laborers' bell hangs, was in a very dilapidated at White's restaurant.

Meeting of Clan Mackenzie.

Regular meeting of teamsters' union. Baseball—Franklins v. Clippers, Vic-A meeting of the St. Luke's Base-10.30 a. m.

public meeting will be held Wedn

ADVERTISING THE TERCENTEN-

the St. John Old Home week and terline of the programme and the special attractions provided. The Times com ments very favorably on the offers to give all former New Brunswickers particulars as to transportation, etc.

The editor of the Times, Mr. Living ston, is a former New Brunswicker Old Home week attractions.

$5.00

the Best $5.00 Gold Crewn in this

Night-

A wholesale's overstock of Ladies' White Cambric Nightgowns has been secured by us at very advantageous prices. We pass them on to you at a LADIES' NIGHTGOWNS, made of good white cambric, neck front and sleeves trimmed with frilling. Full size 56, 58, or 60 ins. long. Our spe-

LADIES' NIGHTGOWNS, neck and | good white cambric, neck, front and sleeves finished with hemstitched frills. Tucked yoke, with Hamburg insertion, full sizes. Our special price

LADIES' NIGHTGOWNS, made o fine English cambric, with tucked yoke, finished with Hamburg medalons; front, neck and sleeves trimmed A person was heard this morning to say that the company should announce of the say that the say tha receive her friends on Wednesday

Total G. U. HAY, Treasurer.

NEEDED REPAIRS.

condition. When the planks were removed it was found that many of the heavy timbers underneath were rotten. These are being replaced with new ones and when completed the walk will be good for many years to THIS EVENING.

Meeting of the Junior Liberal Conservative Association in room 11 Rit-Alumni of Queens University supper

The annual meeting of the St. John District will be held in Fairville Methodist church tomorrow, beginning at In connection with the meeting a

The Cambridge Times of June 3rd publishes a half column article on and intends, in company with his two

Teeth extracted without pain, 15 cts where they take steamer for England to attend the International Salvation gowns.

SALE OF

59 Cts.

LADIES' NIGHTGOWNS - A very attractive style, with square yoke trimmed with fine torcheon lace and ribbon, made from good English cambric. Sale price

LADIES' NIGHTGOWNS, made of fine English cambric, with low neck

Morrell & Sutherland,

27-29 Charlotte St.

Oppo. Y. M. C. A.

ALL READY

Yes, we are all Ready with a Spring Stock of Men's Footwear that deserves your attention, if you give any thought to matters of correctness. All the new conceits in leather and shape that have been marked approved. Particular men will find here just what they want in Footwear. This is a shoe store that is especially conducted for particular people. The Laboring Man—The Business Man or the Swell Dresser will find that we will give his particular Shoe wants the most careful attention. Prices count for little unless you see the Shoes-so we say, come in for a look.

Our Constant Aim is to Serve You Better

D. MONAHAN.

162 UNION STREET

Meat Department. Our assortment comprises Choice Western Beef, very juicy Well Fattened Veal and Mutton, Choice Spring Lamb, Mild Cured Roll Bacon and Flat Bacon, Small and Medium Sugar-cured Hams. Telephone orders receive careful attention.

Goods delivered promptly. F. E. WILLIAMS CO., Ltd.,

Cor. Charlotte and Princess St. Telephone 543.

25 p.c. FOR WOMEN

Duty. Equal in style, make and flexibility to any American Shoe. Sizes, 2 to 7; width, C., D. and E.

Save

Oxford Ties, Laced Boots, Prices, $2 to $5 FOR SALE BY

FRANCIS & VAUGHAN,

TAKEN TO THE POOR HOUSE.

meon Fanjoy's Sister Accuses Brother of Cruelty. Simeon Fanjoy, a cripple, whose ed that the accounts of receipts and home is in Indiantown, where he is very well known, was taken to the alms house on Saturday by the police. expenditures for the past year; just balanced. The following directors wer chosen: Senator Ellis, A. I. True-so during the absence of the father and without her permission. SALVATIONISTS FOR ENGLAND.

ing kept in the Crouchville institution,

The Bermuda Brass Band and the All leave this evening for Montreal,

The annual meeting of the Masonic Hall Company was held yesterday afternoon in the office of W. B. Wallace, K. C. The financial statement show A married sister states that he was taken there at the instigation of his brother, with whom, in his father's house, he /lived. She says she is very averse to her brother's being kept in the Crouphyllle institution. ter Campbell, W. E. Vroom, George B. Hegan, F. L. Tufts, F. J. G. Knowlt very unfeelingly in the matter, especially so in face of the fact that he did

A resolution expressing appreciation of the services of the late Robert Mar-

MASONIC HALL MANAGEMENT.

EMPRESS SHOP

shall, who served for along time on the board of directors and who was very prominently identified with the building of the hall, was passed un-

TO ADVERTISERS. Eastern Minstrels, two Salvation Army combinations, held forth to a large audience in the York Theatre last night.

An excellent programme was carried Owing to the Star going to press early on Saturdays during the summer months, advertisers are asked to please send all changes to the office on Friday afternoon. The Star cannot guar-