HAD LOTS OF TIME TO INSPECT THE BAR
John B. Jones Was in a Hotel Longer Than He Desired—Clerk Forgot About the Spring Lock.
Liquor License Inspector John B. Jones, it is said, was the victim of an amusing incident Saturday night. He was on duty at the Victoria street bar path looking for offenders against the liquor license act and dropped in unannounced on a tavern hotel. He immediately asked if he could get into the bar. A new clerk looked astonished being made aware who the gentleman with the grey moustache was, he immediately handed over the keys of the bar. The inspector passed through a door which closed behind him with a door, found the booze dispensary in darkness and no sign of any illegal selling, and being quite satisfied with his examination he started to get out and like a Santa Claus pay his respects to other hotels. He got out of the bar but to get out of the hallway he found to be quite difficult, as he had no key for the outside door. He rapped on the door for some time but there being no answer he started to knock. He knocked and he looked as if the inspector was to spend the night in a dismal corner. The new clerk did not think about the spring lock on the outside door until it struck him that it was a long time for an inspector to be inside and on investigation he found that the inspector had unintentionally been made a prisoner. An apology was in order and the matter was treated as a joke.

FIREMEN WILL MAKE THEIR CALLS ON WHEELS
Have Hired Buckboards as There is No Snow for the New Year's Day Drive.
All day the members of the fire department and Salvage Corps have been glancing heavenward and asking if sleighing tomorrow, but the weather man predicts showers and mild weather.
New Year's day is one that is looked forward to, for each company with songs and laughter drive about the city and make their New Year's call at each fire station.
A reception committee is at each station, and after a few minutes of shaking hands, cheering and singing at the station, the ladders return to their own rooms and smoke the pipe of peace. As the probabilities are that there will be no snow, a number of the companies have chartered buckboards and other conveyances and will make the calls on wheels.

SIX MORE ENGLISH TEACHERS ARRIVE
Went Through the High School Today, But Will Come Back in the Spring for a Longer Visit
Six more of the English school teachers coming to Canada to study Canadian methods, arrived yesterday. Miss T. L. Dawson and Miss Smith, J. E. L. Griffiths, L. Pierce and E. R. H. Turner arrived on the Allan liner Parisian and C. H. Burden arrived on the Lake Manitoba. The latter will remain here for two days and the remainder will proceed to Montreal tonight.
Mr. Burden when seen by a Star representative today, said that he had come to Canada to study the methods of teaching chiefly in the high schools. His work in England is to train young men and women to be teachers. Mr. Burden states that each teacher who leaves on the Moseley mission is given different directions and other the high school methods. Some are directed to pay their attention to one particular branch of study.
Mr. Burden will leave on Wednesday for Quebec, where he will visit the schools. From there he will go to different points in the United States. He expects to be in St. John by the middle of March, when he will be shown through the schools. In company with Dr. Bridges the visiting educationalists visited the high school this morning. The visit was only made in order that the building could be seen, as none of the work of the scholars could be inspected as the Christmas holidays are now on.

FAILURES FOR THE YEAR IN NEW BRUNSWICK
Bradstreets Reports a Total of 45 With Liabilities Aggregating $175,000—A Very Good Year.

HE REFERRED TO WORK FOR MONEY
In the police court this morning Lisie Byard (colored), for being drunk on Sheffield street yesterday, was fined $5 or two months in jail.
Joseph Mills got too much liquor on board yesterday and made a disturbance in his mother's house on Britain street. He was fined $5 or two months for drunkenness and remained in jail on the other charge. The magistrate said that Mills was no worse than some other young men in Lower Cove and the only reason that they are not looked up is that they have so far escaped the observation of the police. They had been reported to him and had better take warning.
Thomas Woods, a stranger, was fined $4 or 10 days.
William Mattix, a dirty looking individual, was charged with vagrancy and a sentence of nine months in jail was allowed to stand over him providing that he goes immediately to work in a position that had been found for him. He is not wanted in the Alms House as he is well able to earn his money. He has the two things to choose from, work for money or work on the chain gang. He took the money end of the offer and quickly departed from the court.
Wm. Estey, charged with stealing nuts and gin from the C. P. R., was brought into court and through his counsel, J. King Kelly, consented to be tried by the magistrate. F. R. Taylor, for the C. P. R., consented to an adjournment and the case will be taken up at ten o'clock Wednesday morning.

Another Milestone!
In extending to numerous patrons and friends our cordial best wishes for their physical and financial well-being during the ensuing twelve months, allow us to express our falter thanks for the liberal manner in which they have patronized us during the year now ended. Every effort has been put forth to merit this consideration, not only in service and modern merchandising methods, but in the goods themselves.
"The best is none too good for St. John people," is the slogan when our personal representatives are scouring European, American and home markets selecting each season's supply, and it was with a determination to carry out this very motto that our first party of buyers left last Friday night on the "Empress of Ireland." Furthermore, friends, we promise you a year of bigger, brighter and even better shopping opportunities, all our important annual sales are yet ahead of you, not to mention a wealth of charming spring creations. Ships are unloading scores of cases marked "M-R-A, St. John," and clerks are storing them for a grand unfolding soon to come.
Again, Thanks! Again, Best Wishes!
