On Tuesday afternoon Miss Stairs gave a small boating party on board the steam-yacht "Eulala."
It was composed aitogether of young people.

Mrs. Mat. Morrow's very successful camp fire dinner came off on Wednesday. Despite the closeness of the weather it was enjoyed very much by the many guests. The arrangements were perfect. After partaking of a very sumptuous dinner, the guests wandered around the shore or went out in boats; later a bountiful toon-fire vas lighted, around which the guests gathered and listened to the beautiful music discoursed by Amerino's band. Some of the younger ones danced the lancers on the sail cloth which had been spread over the lawn. The grounds looked remarkably well, being all lighted with Chinese lanterns.

There was a small dance at Mrs. Taylor Wood's, Morris street, Wednesday evening.

Miss M. Cory left Thursday for Toronto, where she is to attend school. She was accompanied by her mother.

Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Wakefield Brown, whose only son died of consumption, in Kentville, on Thursday.
The Misses Murphy left for their home in Baltimore, Thursday. They have been spending a large part of their summer in Bedford and Halliax.
There was a tennis party at Wellington barracks on Friday, but the coolness of the day rather interfered with the enjoyment of the guests.
Saturday there was the usual yacht race, a number of people were at the Squadron house, a huge log fire and hot tes welcomed the mariners after the race. A pienic was given after the race by Captain Mills, Mr. Smith and Mr. Tighe. A huge camp fire at MacNabs was part of the entertainment which was unanimously voted "awfully folly."
Saturday night a dance was given on board the "Canada," by the officers. The deck was "cleared for action" and did duty for a ball room. A mong the research were Mrs. D. Driffe, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart.

noon of the same day the sports of the M. P. A. A.

A. were held on the grounds of the Windsor A. A.

club. On Thursday evening a grand tennis ball

under the auspices of the Windsor lawn tennis club was held in Marine hall. The ball was a suc cess in every way and the members of the Windsor under the auspices of the wheaver was teamed to the second of the success in every way and the members of the Windsor club, especially Mr. J. C. Lithgow, the indefatigible secretary-treasurer, may well feel proud of its success. The music by the 78th band was all that could be desired. It was decided before the dance that no encores would be responded to, but so betatifully did the band render a waltz composed of Scotch airs that they were compelled to respond. There were eighteen regular dances and three supper extras on the programme. The floor, although a triffe sticky at first, soon improved. The costumes of the ladies were super. The list of guests is as follows:
