J. W. ALLEN,

Mrs. Collard gave an 'at home' on Friday; of last week about a hundred guests were present. I shall hope to give an account of the work exhibition organized by Mrs. Erskine that is to be held in the Commissioner's house this wednesday. Mrs. Erskine, I im glad to hear, has quite recovered from her nasty accident.

The Garrison Dramatic club had a capital house for their first performance of "Sweet Lavender" last Friday evening. It is a dilicult piece for amateurs and heavy one, out on the whole it went off well. The honors of the evening belonged chi fly to the ladies, who did most excellently. Mrs. Tajor made a capital Mrs. Gil fillian and was cleverly made up to ook far older than her very limited number of years. She received a most beautiful bouquet, but its arrival was anfortunately a little late, as it was not handed over the footlights until after Mrs. Gil-fillian's exit. Mrs. Tobin, as Minnie Gilfillian, did charmingly and looked and acted her part to perfection. She was delightfully dressed throughout the piece, first in outdoor dress with a very pretty flowery hat, which was most becoming, and on her next entrance wore a really lovely evening g.c.wa of pitk brocade trimmed very slightly with lace, over which she wore a lovely cloak of dull green lined with pink. In the last act she looked quite charming in a pink blouse, black skirt and white apron. Asto her acing, it was excellent throughout the piece; none of her words were lost, and her canuciation was, as usual, perfectly clear and distinct. In this respect indeed all the ladies did better than the men; they could be distinctly heard all over the house, while the men, with the exception, of Professor Currie, typke far too qu'ckly and it required close attention on the part of the audience to take in all their words.

ried his words at d was indistinct.

The blog-fee party is getting to be an entert diment which is always with us: there were four ast week, of which those given by Mr. Atkinson and Miss Wilby were the largest. There is usually non-bleyeling element asked to the tea after the die, for, said to say, more ladies than men bleyele and some extra men are nearly always asked to ome in at tea time.

ide, for, sail to say, more same and some extra men are nearly always asked to some in at tea time.

Mrs. Collard was to have had a big bicycling party on Friday afternoon, but the wet weather turned it into a tea, which was very cheery and pleasant. There were other teas during, the week, but no large ones, excepting last Saturday's at Government house, at which football enthusiasts arrived very wet after seeing the latter half of the Garrison vs. Wanderers match played in the pouring rain. It was a very pretty and pleasant party and a delightful contract to the duil wet afternoon. As it was not large, tea was served in the dising room, not in the ball room as at large "at homes." There have been several small dinners given during the week, Mrs. Montg.mery Moore, Mrs. Daly and Mrs. Erisline each having one.

Mr. Elliott, R. A. a very o'd member of the garrison and a familiar figure in Halliar society for the last seven pears, lift last week for England and will be greatly missed by his many friends. A

Nov. 5.—All who att.nded the concert in Jam's church hall on Friday evening were delighted v the the well rendered program, which was indeed a musical treat. The concert was given by Prc's, Logan, pianist, Mr. Max Well and Mr. Charles Wikel tenor vocalist, all from the teaching staff of the Hallfax conservatory of Music. We are rejoiced that Prof. Logan can spare two days of the week, at he did last winter in teaching the pianoforte in of Halifax.

We have also a good teacher of the violin, Miss Janle McKerz'e of Pictou, but what is greaty needed is a first class teacher of vocal music and I am assured that a large number of "would be singers" are patiently waiting that they may have their voices trained as well as their fingers.

Rev. Mr. Croft, Mrs. Croft and their son were visiting friends in Syd. ey last week.

Mrs. John Connolly for the past week has been very seriously ill.

The New Glasgow football team (juniors) played a match with Pictou on Welneiday and won 6 to 0.

Misses Louise Kitchin, Laurs Henry, and Lilly Munro of River John w. re visiting friends in town last week.

Munic of River John w.re visiting friends in town last week.

Miss Hyndman of Charlottetowu, has at the request of St. Andrew's church choir, consented to remain here for the winter.

The mar.isge of Mir. J. E. Condon, junior partner of the firm of Stiles & Condon, took place at St. Dunstan's church, Frederictor, N. B., on Tuesday the 28th Oct., in the presence of a large congregation, the bride was Miss Evaline Seary of the latter place. Mr. and Mrr.
