A Book for Women Written by a Woman

In Mrs. Richardson's latest book, "Women to Health and Happiness," it is a guide for the young girl, the wife and mother. It contains interesting chapters on diet, exercise, marriage, widowhood and motherhood and on the ailments which are liable to attack women at these different periods of her life. Over one page of reading matter and profusely illustrated. It is written in a plain, comprehensible manner, free from technical terms, and is a full and valuable advice and recipes, abounds in plain facts and is fertile in suggestions showing how to surmount the difficulties which arise at certain periods of a woman's life. A copy will be sent FREE to every woman sending her name and address, and 10 cts. in stamps (stamps or silver) to cover cost of mailing.

Mr. McKee has lived for about thirty years in Trenton, where he has established a large fundry, employing over one hundred men. Owing to pressing business engagements Mr. McKee was unable to spend any time in the provinces this trip, but intends returning in July or August and will visit his native place, Picton, and will also visit other sections of the provinces, including Charlottetown, Moncton and Shediac. He is one of the progressive provincialists who have made their mark in the neighboring republic.

Wednesday, Empire day, was fittingly celebrated in the public schools. It was arranged that in the high school in the morning each teacher should give special lessons to his own grade. These lessons were on the empire's strength, extent, wealth, unity, etc. In the afternoon the scholars assembled in the assembly hall. They sang patriotic songs, an exercise was given on the origin of the Union Jack and the coat of arms. Addresses were delivered by city clergymen and public men. In the Victoria school a programme was also arranged.

The regular prayer meeting in the first Baptist church Thursday night will be of a patriotic character. Pastor Parsley announced Sunday evening that the occasion would be one of thanksgiving for the blessings enjoyed under Her Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria and for supplication for a continuance of her glorious reign. Mr. Parsley will deliver a patriotic address.

Mr. Chas. Marshall of Humphrey's Mills, last night received a letter from Pt. Brad Tower, now in South Africa, enclosing a piece of silver on which is Kruger's head.

CHATHAM.

May 22.—Chatham indulged in a spontaneous celebration, Friday evening, that was better than if it had been prearranged. Word arrived, just before six o'clock, of the relief of Mafeking, which had been besieged ever since the Boers declared war against Great Britain.

The town was soon in a state of excitement. Whistles in town were blown for several minutes by way of announcing the good news to the public. Everybody seemed to know what the screaming whistles were saying, and every face beamed with gladness.

The town was ray with burning in a few minutes, hundreds of flags blowing in the breeze. The word to close the stores was quickly passed around, and 7 o'clock found nearly all of them with their shutters up. This was a mistake, as it would have been much more like a gala evening if the stores had been lighted and their blinds up. Before dark cannon crackers began to boom in Water street, making reports like light artillery. The evening was fine, and half the town soon gathered in the streets. A good many teams were out, the horses and carriages being decked with small flags. Some of these drove rather recklessly, considering the crowds in the streets, and several persons narrowly escaped injury.

On Monday evening next, there is to be a vocal and instrumental concert given, under the auspices of St. Andrews church Christian Endeavor society in the hall of the church. An attractive programme has been prepared by the young people, on which appears the name of Hon. E. J. Tweed for an address. The entertainment begins at eight o'clock.

The third public piano recital, by the pupils of Mr. F. W. Harrison, will be given in the Temperance hall, Newcastle, on Monday evening next. They will be assisted by Mrs. G. M. Young, reciter; Mrs. J. W. Miller, contralto soloist; and male quartette. Concert begins at eight o'clock.

The milliners are going to join the early closing procession. Monday and Wednesday evenings. The young men from the grocery and dry good stores are out these evenings, wheeling and pushing, and the young ladies from the millinery

Don't cough yourself to death. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine will cure your cough and cold; 25 cents a bottle, family size 60 cents.

Dr. Chase's Ointment

Without the danger, pain or expense of an operation,

Is imitated, but its cures are not duplicated. Read the evidence.

Just as there are many recipe books, but none that ever approach to the value of Dr. Chase's, so there are many imitations of Dr. Chase's Ointment, but none that can effect such cures as are daily brought about by means of this great healer.

The supreme test is found in the curing of piles. Dr. Chase's Ointment has never been known to fail to cure piles—no matter of what form or of how long standing. This can be said of no other remedy ever discovered.

You need not accept our statement for the credit of this prince among remedies. Read the evidence in the daily press.

Mr. Lee Johnston, travelling salesman for Messrs. A. & M. Smith, Halifax, N. S., states: "I take pleasure in stating that Dr. Chase's Ointment cured me of a severe case of itching piles from which I suffered for ten years, and tried nearly every remedy recommended for piles without obtaining relief. One box of Dr. Chase's Ointment cured me completely."

Mr. Amos P. Fisher, of Somerset, Kings county, N. S., also a commercial traveller, states: "I have been cured of itching piles by using Dr. Chase's Ointment. I was bothered with above malady for 12 years and suffered extreme agony at times. Thanks to Dr. Chase's Ointment I am entirely cured and recommended it to all who suffer from the above disease."

You can test Dr. Chase's Ointment without cost by sending five cents to pay postage of a single box. Dr. Chase's Ointment 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or by mail from Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
