

EMERSON'S ANTI-BRITISH SENTIMENT STIRS HOUSE

Objects to Prince Alexander of Teck as Governor General.

NO MORE ROYALTY IN OFFICIAL CAPACITY.

Ready to Move Condemnatory Resolution—Public Expression of Disloyalty Shocks Even Opposition Anti-Britishers.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, May 8.—There was a sensational incident in the House of Commons this afternoon when Hon. H. R. Emmerson at one time Minister of Railways and Canals in the late Liberal administration, referred to the announcement in the press that Prince Alexander of Teck, brother of Queen Mary, had been appointed Governor General of Canada and remarked that he hoped the rumor of the appointment was not true.

Afterwards in the lobbies when interviewed by the press Mr. Emmerson said: "My objection is to Royalty, and foreign Royalty being brought to this country in any official capacity. I would be prepared to move a condemnatory resolution."

Mr. Emmerson added that he had a great respect for the Duke of Connaught on personal grounds. He considered him a fine type of man, but he objected to the continuance of Royalty in this country in any official capacity. He objected especially to a German prince such as Prince Alexander of Teck, being sent to Canada.

This illustrates the disloyalty of several of the Liberal members of parliament. Indeed anti-British sentiment is one of the features of the campaign made up of a section of the Liberal party at Ottawa.

CLAIM AMERICANS ARE VIOLATING ARMISTICE

Mexico City Papers Says U. S. is Landing More Troops at Vera Cruz—Huerta Making No Move to Resign.

Vera Cruz, May 8.—Mexicans arriving here today from Mexico City say that General Huerta shows no indication of having any intention of abandoning the presidency of Mexico. The president, they assert, is credited with having made the statement that he would see the capital in ashes before he left it.

That the American forces at Vera Cruz are violating the armistice by landing more troops and supplies is the charge made by Mexico City papers which are under the domination of President Huerta.

Rebels in the vicinity of the federal capital, particularly the followers of Zapata, are continuing their campaign against the Huerta administration.

JURY IN TRIAL OF BECKER COMPLETED

First Witness Will Likely Be Called Today—Dist. Atty Will Charge Ex-police Lieut. Was Brains of Conspiracy.

New York, May 8.—The jury which will determine whether Charles Becker, the former police lieutenant and head of the "strong arm squad," conceived the plot that resulted in the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, was completed late today. An adjournment was promptly taken until 10.30 o'clock tomorrow morning when District Attorney Whitman will address the jury, charging that Becker actually was the "brains" of the conspiracy. The first witness will probably be placed on the stand early in the morning.

The jury as finally completed is as follows: Foreman, F. M. Blagden, 28 years old, a bond merchant; James M. Faust, 29, a real estate dealer; Thomas W. Edwards, 30, a chemist; Edward E. Van Riman, 35, dry goods salesman; Paul D. Camors, 38, a bond salesman; Robert Baxter, 30, a clerk; D. L. Holtz, 48, marine engineer; Phillip Loff, 36, civil engineer; Walter Goodyear, 64, a book publisher; Gilbert Shal, 32, a manufacturer; Ephraim Pimms, 45, a retired salesman; Wilbur F. Rawlings, 35, a salesman.

It will be remembered that Hon. Frank Oliver, another ex-police lieutenant, refused on one occasion last year in the house to sing the British National Anthem. Needless to say the majority of the members present kept silent. The incident made upon the brother-in-law of King George and grandson-in-law of Queen Victoria by Mr. Emmerson, and several of the leading Liberals who are fearful of being classed as anti-Britishers are loud in their protestations against Mr. Emmerson thus publicly expressing his views as a Liberal, committing his party to disloyal sentiments. When the house opened Mr. Emmerson said: "I would like to ask if the government has any official information in respect to the appointment of a governor general to succeed the present incumbent of that office. I see rumors in the press which I hope are not true, and I presume the people of Canada would like to know what foundation there is for them. Still I speak individually."

The Premier replied: "There has been a telegram received by H. R. H. the Governor General announcing that His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Prince Alexander of Teck to succeed His Royal Highness as Governor General."

The incident is the chief topic of conversation in the lobbies of parliament tonight and the resentment against Mr. Emmerson seems to be very strong.

The leading men in the Liberal party deprecate such public announcements of the views of those who are anti-British, entailing as it does injury to the party.

During the last election campaign one of the methods practised by Liberal candidates to attract foreign immigrants was anti-British talk. In fact the present day Liberal party contains all the anti-Britishers there are in the country.

TO WELCOME PEACE ENVOYS TO CANADA

Government Considering Plans for Their Entertainment—May Invite Them to Visit Principle Cities as Nation's Guests.

Ottawa, Ont., May 8.—The government has under consideration the reception and entertainment to be tendered the Spanish and American peace envoys upon their arrival and during their stay in Canada. The meeting of the envoys will be the greatest historical event of the time since the representatives of Russia and Japan, as the guests of the United States government negotiated and concluded the treaty of Portsmouth which terminated the Russo-Japanese war.

While the peace commissioners are not coming here at the invitation of the Canadian government, it is deemed only proper that they should receive a generous welcome and hospitality.

It is understood that a formal welcome will be extended to the visitors by some member of the government who will go to Niagara Falls for that purpose, and that a guard of honor will be detailed, probably from the Toronto and Hamilton regiments. It is also understood that the envoys will be invited to visit the principle cities of Canada as the guests of the nation.

CARDINAL FARLEY AT ROME, SAYS WILSON IS SINCERE PEACE ADVOCATE

Rome, May 8.—Cardinal Farley arrived in Rome on a visit to Pope Pius. When His Holiness learned that the American prelate had reached Rome he expressed a desire to see him soon.

Several members of the College of Cardinals and other church dignitaries visited Cardinal Farley at his hotel this afternoon. When asked concerning the situation in Mexico Cardinal Farley expressed a hope that the mediation program undertaken by the South American powers would prove effective in bringing about a settlement of the controversy between Mexico and the United States. He said he was convinced that President Wilson was a sincere advocate of peace and did not desire to add to the territory of the United States by conquest.

CARVELL TAKEN TO TASK FOR COWARDLY ATTACK ON CARLETON COUNTY MEN

Charged Norman Winslow and B. F. Smith With Attempt to Get Rake-off on Property Government Was to Buy for Experimental Farm.

CONFRONTED BY HON. MR. HAZEN LAST NIGHT WITH PROOF OF FALSITY OF CHARGES

Letters Presented in House of Commons Last Night Completely Exonerated Both Messrs. Smith and Winslow and Show Methods to Which Carvell Resorts to Vilify Opponents.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, May 8.—Recently F. B. Carvell, M. P. for Carleton, made the extraordinary charge in the house that Norman Winslow and B. F. Smith of Woodstock, had arranged to get a rake-off of $10,000 on a property that was to be purchased in Carleton county for the purpose of an experimental farm. Mr. Carvell suggested that the reason the property was not bought in Carleton was because this rake-off would have to be paid. A statement made in the house tonight by Hon. J. D. Hazen and letters read by him completely exonerate these gentlemen. As the minister of marine said there was nothing to resemble evidence to justify such a charge or reflect upon the character of Frank Smith.

As showing the methods which Mr. Carvell adopts to vilify his opponents, he made the important statement when confronted with the evidence tonight that he withdrew any charge of wrong-doing against B. F. Smith. The price of the C. L. Smith farm was quoted as $10,000. Where Carvell would sell for either $7,000 or $9,000, I said I thought his price was high, but I would not buy it. I afterwards told Frank Smith the farm could be bought for $30,000. Whether Frank Smith wrote to the department or not, I do not know, with Mr. Carvell's further attention to it. If he did write and stated $30,000 he meant for the combined farms.

"Later on when the Liberals were trying to form a ticket for the local election, C. L. Smith who was talked into selling the farm to the department, George Uphin and Andrew McCall, came in to see me a day or two after he had been to Florenceville to see what there was a great future for the Conservative executive in regard to some of them buying his farm for $20,000. He said that if they were not to buy it immediately he would not be a candidate and if he were not in it McCall would not run and there would probably be no opposition to me in Carleton. I replied that I was not taking any interest in the local election, but would speak to George Uphin who at that time was the president of the Conservative Association. I did speak to him but he replied that they would have nothing to do with it.

"When Mr. Carvell with Mr. Holtz came to town I did not discuss with Mr. Grisdale any particular farm or prices for the reason that I had at that time given up any hopes of Carleton getting it, as Dr. Landry had told Frank Smith that he favored Frederickton to get the seal of the government.

"Later on, 1912, when the St. John and Quebec Railway were ready to grade across Smith's farm, I advised them to buy the farm, as Smith was asking too much for the right of way. I tried to get an option for $20,000 on the whole farm. I did not get the option and that ended the negotiations.

"The arbitrators afterwards awarded him $1,800 for about 3 1/2 acres for the right of way and about two months later the same arbitrators awarded the north side of his interval from the agricultural society for $1,900, or about $200 an acre, which is $100 an acre more than it is worth.

He was at a slyly attended meeting of the society last fall elected president and with a committee he attempted to get an option for the waterworks. General Funston is understood to have told the war department that with the 7,000 men he now has his lines are vulnerable at different points and that a sudden attack along the railroad would necessitate the withdrawal of forces from other points which would be left unprotected. The information to the department that he will need at least 15,000 to 16,000 men in order to hold Vera Cruz as well as the outlying districts which he now has garrisoned.

The mediating envoys continued their sessions through the day. Neither the question of armistice nor the apparent uncertainty as to the time of arrival of the Mexican delegates was allowed to delay their general telegraphic inquiries are under way. Reports that the Mexican delegates would leave Mexico City tomorrow by way of Salina Cruz and Vera Cruz and Key West.

High Tension Again in Mexican Situation

More Troops May be Sent to Vera Cruz as a Precautionary Move—Gen. Funston Needs at Least 15,000 More.

Washington, May 8.—High tension marked the Mexican situation today, both on the military and the diplomatic side. The war department was the chief centre of activity, and while no authoritative statement was made, beyond Secretary Garrison's formal reply "no orders for additional troop movements have been sent." It became known that the sending of additional troops to Vera Cruz was under consideration and probably would be carried out. This section would not be intended in any way as an aggressive measure but as a reasonable precaution to support the force already there in case of any untoward event.

The discussion of relations between the United States and Mexico has been developed a marked difference of opinion in the cabinet. Some of the members take the view that the mediation negotiations might be embarrassed by such an act, while others believed that it was a necessary precaution against

PICKLED FISH INDUSTRY HAS BRIGHT OUTLOOK

With New Regulations Provided for in Bill Before House, Should Become a Thriving Industry in Canada.

Ottawa, May 8.—Before the orders of the day were called in the Commons today, Hon. H. R. Emmerson rose and said: "I would like to ask if the government have any official information in respect to the appointment of a Governor General to succeed the present incumbent of the office. I see rumors in the press and I presume that the people of Canada would like to know what foundation there is for them. I hope that the rumors are not true. Still I speak individually."

There was no further comment from either side of the house.

Standard of Pickled Fish Industry. Hon. J. D. Hazen's bill with respect to the inspection and branding of pickled fish was given a first and second reading and then referred to the marine and fisheries committee. The pickled fish industry, said Mr. Hazen, was in a languishing condition due partly to the poor packages in common use which ruined the contents in transportation and partly to the lack of a proper system of grading and marketing and unsystematic methods of packing. The legislation will apply to both Pacific and Atlantic coasts and the minister expressed the opinion that there was a great future for the fishing industry on the Pacific coast. During the consideration of a bill providing for the allowance of $600 per annum to Mrs. Alice Johnson, the widow of a guard in the British Columbia penitentiary, who was killed in the performance of his duty, Sir W. T. Laurier suggested that it would be a wise thing to have a general law dealing with such matters. Such a law would provide that the event of an official losing his life in the performance of his duty his widow and family should be allowed a pension.

Hon. C. J. Doherty agreed with the continued on page 2.

MAORI CHIEFS ON THEIR WAY TO SEE KING

Three of Them Leave Their Home in New Zealand for First Time to Visit the "Great White King."

Montreal, May 8.—Three Maori chiefs, Terata Mahuta, Mita Karaka, and Tupu Taisakawa, chartered by George C. Paul, an agent of the British government, arrived in Montreal this morning on their way to see the Great White King in England.

This is the first occasion that any of the three has left New Zealand and they still declare that Auckland with its population of thirty thousand is the largest city in the world.

The party leaves tomorrow by the Megantic. The chiefs will proceed to London where they will be received by King George and present their grievances.

CALGARIAN BAILS FOR QUEBEC

London, May 9.—The new Allan Harter Calgarian left Liverpool for Quebec yesterday, you had maiden voyage carrying many prominent Canadians.

St. John's, Nfld., May 8.—The steamer Stephano left for Halifax, the steamer Pomeranian is still detained and the steamer Sardinian is lying off Cape Race, waiting a chance to enter. All the coast and the bay is blocked and steam service north of St. John's is impossible to carry on until off shore winds clear the coast.

HAYNES PAYS PENALTY FOR CRIME ON SCAFFOLD

Hanged Between 5 and 6 O'clock Yesterday for Murder.

CONFESSION FAILS TO STAY EXECUTION

Confident of Respite Until few Minutes Before He Was Led from Jail—Left Statement of Crime.

Sydney, N. S., May 8.—Frank Haynes is dead. He expired the murderer of B. S. Atkinson on the scaffold this afternoon at 5.41. At five twenty-five o'clock Deputy Sheriff Ingraham announced to the witnesses that all was in readiness to carry out the sentence and requested them to file quietly into the corridor of the upper jail.

In the meantime Rev. J. W. McConnell and Captain Fullerton were with the condemned man and at 5.27 hangman J. Holmes was called to the death cell where he went at once taking the black cap with him. Sheriff Ingraham then posted his officers at the outlets of the upper jail and the signal for the death procession was given.

Walked Calmly to His Doom. The hangman followed by the two ministers proceeded Haynes, who walked between two constables, the black cap pulled slightly over his eyes. Haynes walked firmly and only needed assistance in guiding his steps towards the place of his execution. He mounted the scaffold at once for the county, 5.35 and six minutes later the end had come.

Standing in the centre of the trap and with the noose placed around his neck Haynes asked for the doctor who placed a morphia tablet in the prisoner's mouth. His words to the doctor were his last and Rev. J. W. McConnell said the last prayers. As he finished the Lord's Prayer, "For ever and ever," hangman was called to open the trap and Haynes was sent into eternity.

READY TO FIGHT IN ULSTER AT FIRST INVASION

Citizens' Army Preparing for Launching an Effective Striking Force—Plan to Surround Ulster With Troops Reported.

London, May 9.—The special correspondent of the Daily Express in a despatch from Belfast says that politicians may talk vaguely at Westminster about an honorable settlement, and the outside world may think that Ulster about to relax into peaceful security, but meanwhile General Macready is busy inspecting strategic positions for troops, sounding the police, whom he has under control, as to their readiness to assist in coercing anti-Home Rule counties, while the Citizen army continues its preparations for the launching of an effective force at the first sign of invasion.

The situation suggests a truce between two armies that may be entered at any moment rather than lasting peace. The despatch further states that the correspondent was told that one of the plans put forward, presumably on the authority of the army council, for crushing Ulster, was to surround Belfast with a cordon of troops while the police made arrests, searched for arms and confiscated documents, but that when the scheme was submitted to the police authorities they vetoed it as impracticable, and held that only troops in large numbers could cope with the Ulster army.

Judgment was reserved in the arms proclamation appeal case at Dublin yesterday. The attorney-general for Ireland confined his arguments solely with a view to the declaration of the validity of the proclamation and asked the court not to consider whether the penalty could be enforced.

SIR THOS. SHAUGHNESSY BACK FROM THE WEST

Montreal, May 8.—"I do not look for any great recovery until the fall when, if we have a good crop, (and all the signs point that way), there will be recovery, and that of a wholesome and rational nature," stated Sir Thomas Shaughnessy on his arrival from the west. At the same time he was of opinion that basic business conditions were sound generally.

COUNTRESS OF ABERDEEN IS PRESIDENT

Re-elected by International Council of Women in Convention in Rome—Ontario Woman is Treasurer.

Re-elected by International Council of Women in Convention in Rome—Ontario Woman is Treasurer.

Rome, May 8.—The Countess of Aberdeen today was re-elected president of the International Council of Women. Her re-election was almost unanimous. The Countess will hold office for five years.

Among the other officers chosen today are: Mrs. Jules Siegfried, France, first vice-president; Froben Heunle Forchhammer, Denmark, second vice-president; Mrs. Henry Dobson, Tasmania, third vice-president; Franklin Allee Salomon, Germany, corresponding secretary; Mme. Alphen Salvator, France, recording secretary, and Mrs. Harriet Sophia Stanford, Hamilton, Ontario, treasurer.

Committee presidents were elected as follows: Mrs. Willoughby Cummins, Canada, finance; Mrs. Geo. Cadbury, England, peace and arbitration; the Rev. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, New York, suffrage and rights of citizenship; Fraulein Dr. Van Dorp, Holland, laws concerning the legal position of women; Mme. De Saint Croix, France, equal moral standards and traffic in women; Mme. Girard Mangin, France, public health; Mrs. Oglivie Gordon, Scotland, education; the Countess Daniel Canozzi, Italy, emigration and immigration; Mrs. J. J. Doherty, Canada, moral standards and traffic in women; Mrs. Sewall, who was re-elected honorary president, also addressed the assembly and thanked the council for re-election as honorary president.

Left Full Confession. Haynes made a full written confession of his crime in the presence of Jailer Karn and Captain Fullerton. The documents were handed over to the High Sheriff and will remain in possession of the crown. The officials state that it will not be made public at any time.

The witnesses to the execution began to arrive at the jail shortly after two o'clock as soon as it became known that the condemned man's fate rested on the will of the Minister of Justice.

The first official to arrive was Dr. J. S. Brookman who in company with Dr. W. S. McDonnell went directly to the prisoner's cell. It began to dawn on those present that Haynes' fate was sealed and at 2.30 the high sheriff and his deputy accompanied by Crown Prosecutor Hearne reached the jail and held a twenty minutes conference in the jail office after which the witnesses were admitted and remained seated in the parlor of the jail until summoned to the execution. A few minutes after this Jailer Karn, the press representatives and officers present that Haynes was making a written statement.

"I have just been having the worst time of my life," said Mr. Karn. "I was with Haynes assisting him to put his statement in writing. There were five pages written when he heard the people beginning to arrive outside of the jail. He went to the window and then asked me 'what does this mean, what do you know, Jim?'"

"I told him 'I did not know anything and he commenced walking up and down with his hands in his pockets. It got too much for me and I had to get out.'"

Haynes had been in pretty good spirits all morning and chatted continually with Captain Fullerton, Jailer Karn and his guards. He appeared to be in a slightly better frame of mind and did not give any signs of over excitement until the crowd began to arrive outside of the jail.

STR. DIGBY, OVERDUE, REACHES ST. JOHN'S, N.F.L.D.

Newfoundland Coast Blocked With Ice, Service North of St. John's is Demoralized.

St. John's, Nfld., May 8.—The steamer Digby, overdue from Liverpool and delayed by the ice arrived today. The steamer Stephano left for Halifax, the steamer Pomeranian is still detained and the steamer Sardinian is lying off Cape Race, waiting a chance to enter. All the coast and the bay is blocked and steam service north of St. John's is impossible to carry on until off shore winds clear the coast.
