GOLD DUST does more than clean

Gold Dust sterilizes and leaves your kitchen things sanitarly safe. The ordinary soap-washed utensil is not fit to eat from, because soap does not cleanse as thoroughly as it should—does not kill germs of decay which are bound to lurk in oft-used utensils.

Gold Dust does most of the cleaning without your assistance, and does it, too, in a quicker and more thorough manner than will soap or other cleansers.

Opportunity is Knocking at Your Door

"Let the GOLD DUST TWINS do your work"

Gold Dust makes pot and pan spick and span.

FRENCH CANADIANS DESIROUS OF SENDING REGIMENT TO FRONT

Ottawa, Sept. 28.—A deputation of prominent French-Canadians including Hon. Rudolph Lemieux and L. T. Marchand, K. C., from Quebec, and Senator Belcourt, from Ontario, asked the government today to sanction the formation of a regiment of French-Canadians to take part in the European struggle on behalf of the British Empire. Dr. Arthur Mignault said there would be no difficulty in raising a large force among his compatriots. From the 6th regiment, 365 had enlisted. Mr. Lemieux read a letter from Sir Wilfrid Laurier warmly endorsing the movement and Messrs. Marchand and others gave assurances that their compatriots were anxious to serve and credited Dr. Mignault with having offered to contribute $50,000 as well as his personal services at the front.

POSITION OF THE GERMAN AND ALLIES' LINES IN NORTHERN FRANCE. From this junction of the River Aisne with the Oise to the forest of Argonne the battle rages with the greatest fierceness, especially around Rheims, Craonne and Soissons, with varying fortunes, both the Allies and the Germans occasionally gaining a village or the crest of a hill. More significant, perhaps, is the statement of the French War Office that the Allies have made progress along the Oise, reaching Launoy, west of Neuilly. This threatens the German right flank. Another report states that the Allies have come in contact with the German line at two points between Maroigny and La Catelot, which would indicate another effort to turn the German line, possibly by British reinforcements.

Despatch Published in Berlin Says Losses of Germans Have Been Extraordinarily Heavy in Western Theatre of the War—Another Furious Attempt of Enemy to Break Allies' Front Failed Yesterday.

Berlin, Sept. 28, via London, 2.10 p. m.—A correspondent of the Lokal Anzeiger, in a despatch published here today, points out that a decisive turn in the battle which has been raging in the western theatre of the war need not be expected for some time. Subordinate actions of a decisive character are becoming more general, he declares, and the losses of the Germans have been extraordinarily heavy. "Continuing," the correspondent says, "my own experience, and that of others, is that the population of Northern France is maintaining a satisfactory attitude. We meet such friendliness as is reasonable to expect under the circumstances. Conditions in France are much better than in Belgium. The fighting near Louvain, Belgium, during the second week of September, which led to the claim that Belgium and French had re-taken this city, is described in the Cologne Gazette. This paper declares that on the second day of the fighting Belgian troops advanced to within a little over a mile of the Louvain railroad station and poured a heavy artillery fire over the station building and the immediate neighborhood. This compelled the German force to fall back before three Belgian divisions which were led by King Albert himself. The king displayed wonderful bravery. A little later, however, the German field howitzers shelled the enemy with such force that a hasty retreat resulted. The losses of the Belgians were heavy. Paris, Sept. 28.—The Germans devoted most of their activities to the attack in force along the Aisne and the Argonne region. According to the afternoon official statement telegraphed from Bordeaux at 2.50 o'clock they have tried desperately to break through the allied lines here but have failed. In the effort it is stated the Germans have tried to use a series of desperate bayonet charges to carry the French trenches, but in every instance they have been repulsed with heavy losses. The official statement declares that the fighting at other points has been severe, but has been characterized by the ferocity of the last two days. The general situation, the official statement sums up, remains unchanged, without any notable advantage to either side.

CARSON WILL FORM GOV'T AFTER WAR

Belfast, Ireland, Sept. 28.—Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Irish Unionists, outlined the Ulster program of the future in addressing the Unionist Council today. "I propose," he said, "when the war is over to summon a provisional government and I propose that their first act should be to repeal the home rule bill so far as Ulster is concerned. I propose in the same act to enact that it is the duty of the volunteers to see that no act or no attempt to an act under that bill should ever have effect in Ulster. "Meanwhile let us throw ourselves as we are throwing ourselves wholeheartedly into the patriotic action that the time demands in supporting the Empire."

PRINCE OF WALES' NAMESAKE WON POTTER BATTLE

It is interesting in view of the fact that the present Prince of Wales has been assigned to the staff of Sir John French; that today is the anniversary of the battle of Poitiers, which his namesake, Edward the Black Prince, fought and won on French territory, in 1356. The present Prince of Wales is the first heir to the throne of England since that time to be assigned to the staff of an army fighting on French soil. The battle of Poitiers was fought between the armies of Edward the Black Prince and of King John of France. The Black Prince had led a force of English archers and men-at-arms, 6,500 strong, from Bordeaux into Central France, smashed an enormous amount of booty and was returning from his raid when overtaken by the French army of 16,000 men. Edward had the choice of leaving his spoils or giving battle to a force more than twice as strong as his own. He decided to fight. In order to give his baggage time to get away he took up a defensive position between the Poitiers-Bordeaux road and the River Maunson. This line was strengthened by a line of trees and hedges behind which he placed his archers. King John after an unsuccessful attempt to break the French line, advanced to surround the English without any attempt at manoeuvring on a narrow front. This neutralized the superiority of his numbers. He also dismounted all his men-at-arms except those of the front rank, and was supported by a corps of archers. The horsemen soon outdistanced the crossbow men, their advance marching time to get away he took up a defensive position between the Poitiers-Bordeaux road and the River Maunson. ### UHLANS ARE STALKERS FOR GERMAN ARMY

Rotterdam, Sept. 28.—Concerning the German Uhlands of whom so much has been heard in the European war, Luigi Barzini, a widely known Italian war correspondent, says in the Corriere della Sera: "As we heard a small station and the train lessened its speed we saw a small troop of cavalry guarding the railroad crossing—at patrol of Uhlands. Their demeanor was calm. Though they were in the enemy's country, their careful attitude gave the impression that they were merely in a manoeuvre camp. "The swarms of cavalry which the Germans send out of whom so much has been heard in the European war, and they ride until they are fired upon, keeping this up until they have located the enemy. Their is the task of the enemy is established by them, and many of them are killed—that is, a certainty they are the best of the German army. The Kaiser considers the invasion of France a fiasco and is inconceivable."

GALLOP OUT TO DRAW THE ENEMY'S FIRE SO THE MAIN BODY OF THE TROOPS MAY LEARN OPPONENT'S STRENGTH—HAS NO CHANCE TO ESCAPE.

London, Sept. 28.—"Pursuing their success the Russians have pushed over the Carpathian range and captured Uzkok, Hungary, near the source of the river Danub, with numbers of guns, artillery, stores and prisoners," says the Petrograd correspondent of the Morning Post. "The Russian troops have been sent into the plains of Hungary. A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Bakenbergh, Belgium, under Sunday's date, says that the Belgians have blown up the viaduct at Bierles, cutting railway communications between Mons and Brussels. A Bordeaux despatch to the Central News Agency says a report has reached there that the German commander at Muelhausen, in Alsace, has committed suicide in despair at the fact that he was unable to guess the Voages. He had general staff to come and see the difficulty for itself. London, Sept. 28.—More evidence has been discovered of German preparations for war. German owned stone quarries at the Aisne battle front have been used as stores for concrete emplacements were laid as foundations for "factories," months before war broke out. Copenhagen, Sept. 28.—It is reported there has been a quarrel between the Kaiser and Crown Prince, emanating from the fact that he was unable to guess the Voages. He had general staff to come and see the difficulty for itself. London, Sept. 28.—More evidence has been discovered of German preparations for war. Tonight clean your bowels and end headaches, colds, and Sour Stomach. Get a 10-cent box now. You men and women who can't get right—who have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel worn out—Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, indigestible, fermenting, and foul gases; take the excess bile from the system and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular, and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.

ENEMY'S CRUISERS HAVE DESTROYED TWELVE BRITISH VESSELS

Aggregate tonnage 593,31—Over Hundred German Ships Detained in British Ports. London, Sept. 28, 2.45 p. m.—Twelve British ships with an aggregate tonnage of 593,31, have been sunk on the high seas by German cruisers up to September 23, according to an Admiralty return issued this afternoon. Eight other British ships whose tonnage aggregated 2,970, have been sunk by German ships in the North Sea, and 24 fishing craft, with a tonnage of 4,334 have been captured or sunk by the Germans in the same waters. British ships detained at German ports number 74, with a total tonnage of 170,000. On the credit side the Admiralty gives 102 German ships with a tonnage of 200,000 detained in British ports since the outbreak of the war. Eighty-eight German ships of an aggregate tonnage of 218,000 have been captured since hostilities began. The return also shows that 168 German ships with an aggregate tonnage of 255,000 were detained or captured by the allies. Fifteen ships with a tonnage of 247,000 were detained in American ports while fourteen others, with a tonnage of 72,000 remain in the Suez Canal. The German mines in the North Sea have also to their credit 7 Scandinavian ships with a tonnage of 11,098. Saved That, Anyway. The Poor Man—I've never been able to save anything. ### MEXICO MAY HAVE PEACE AFTER ALL

Washington, Sept. 28.—Assurances from Gen. Villa that he will not be a candidate for president or vice-president of Mexico were forwarded to the administration here today by Consul Agent Carothers. Gen. Carranza has signified his willingness not to become a candidate if Villa would give a similar promise and if all the military leaders of the revolution could be also eliminated as possibilities. None of the others have appeared as candidates. Villa's assurances were regarded here as portending a peaceful end of the rupture with Carranza. The formal retirement of Carranza and the assumption of the provisional presidency by Fernando Iglesias Calderon are expected to follow.

VILLA WILL NOT BE CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENCY, HE SAYS—CARRANZA ALSO PASSES UP THE JOB.

ON THE ADVICE OF HIS DOCTOR

He Used Dr. Chase's Ointment for Protruding Piles With Splendid Results. Too often a doctor can only think of an operation when asked for a treatment for piles. Some are sufficiently broad-minded to use the most effective treatment available, which is undoubtedly Dr. Chase's Ointment, as was proven in the case referred to in this letter. Mr. Simon E. Jones, Railway Street, Inverness, N. S. writes: "I have found Dr. Chase's Ointment the best treatment for my piles. For three years I suffered from piles, and was advised by a local physician to try Dr. Chase's Ointment. I had tried many treatments in vain, and therefore know which is the best. I can highly recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment and you are at liberty to use this statement. "The record of cures of every form of piles which stands behind Dr. Chase's Ointment is the strongest guarantee you can have that it will promptly relieve and cure this ailment, even in the most aggravated form. 8c. a box, all dealers."

MORATORIUM NASTY JAR TO CANADIAN CREDIT, THEY BELIEVE

London, Sept. 28.—Commenting upon the news of the aggressive demand being made in the Western Canadian provinces for a moratorium in respect to mortgages, the London Globe says: "Financial circles here regard the proposal with grave distrust, unless it comes from the older eastern provinces. The Globe continues: "Loan companies and also life insurance companies have very large funds invested in Canadian mortgages, and Canadian loan companies have issued debentures in Great Britain aggregating $80,000,000. British investors claim that a moratorium is unnecessary since collections have continued fairly normal, and they are willing from self-interest alone to deal leniently with borrowers of good standing, who find themselves in temporary difficulties. "The financial editors of other London papers consider that if a moratorium is declared, it will be a nasty jar to Canadian credit."
